Nomination for Outstanding Educator of the Year Award
2012-2013

Background Information: The Outstanding Educator of the Year Awards are given by the ASI Executive Senate in honor of professors who have gone beyond the traditional role of teacher to being a mentor, advisor, role model, and an important member of the campus community. This award is distinctive because it is the students who nominate their professors who have gone that extra mile to inspire, motivate, and educate. The Outstanding Educator of the Year Awards also serve as a link between the Associated Students, Inc. and the professors of this University.

Further Information: Any student may complete the application by answering all four questions below. Representatives from each academic Inter Club Council will select one professor from the applications received from its college and forward that professor’s name to the ASI Executive Vice President/TSU 207. The eight winners and the students who nominated each professor will be invited to attend the ASI Banquet, which will be held Friday, April 26 at 6pm in the Titan Student Union. The Outstanding Educators of the Year will be announced at the ASI Banquet.

Nominations are due Friday, March 22 by 5pm to TSU-207. For more information please contact Katie Ayala, ASI Executive Vice President, at (657) 278-4223 or asvicepresident@fullerton.edu.
