Resolution to Appoint Camp Titan 2016 Co-Directors

Whereas the Board of Directors of the Associated Students, California State University, Fullerton, Incorporated is elected to represent the student body of California State University, Fullerton.

Whereas this same Board of Directors has authority to allocate the associated student body fee and the campus union fee and subsequently to create programs and services in order to serve and support the student body of California State University, Fullerton. Additionally, the Board of Directors has the responsibility to ratify students appointed to leadership positions, which receive student leader financial awards.

Whereas, in 1969, a group of students from the, then, California State College Fullerton decided that they wanted to give back to their community.

And, whereas, this group wanted to provide a summer camp experience for children who normally would not have the opportunity to do so. So the idea of Camp Titan was born. These students, who were not only fraternity and sorority leaders but leaders in the Associated Students, took approximately one hundred underprivileged children from Orange County to Camp Ta Ta Pochon for a one week camping experience. No fees were charged to the campers that year and none have been since.

Whereas, forty-six years later, Camp Titan of the Associated Students, California State University, Fullerton, Inc. continues to provide a free summer camp experience for approximately one hundred thirty underprivileged seven to fourteen year olds from Orange County. And, since 2000, the summer home of Camp Titan has been Camp Oakes located in Big Bear, where each year, some sixty students from Cal State Fullerton devote over 200 hours of their time, with no remuneration, to planning and implementing the camp.

Whereas, each year, two students are selected by the director of ASI Leader & Program Development through an application and interview process to serve as the student co-directors for the up-coming camp season. These students work conjointly with the staff of ASI Leader & Program Development in the planning and implementation of Camp Titan.

Whereas, Karin Lee has been part of Camp Titan as a counselor and a staff member since 2013. During her tenure, she has exhibited great leadership and connection with the campers and her fellow counselors.

Whereas, Taylor Scherer has been part of Camp Titan since 2014 as a counselor and a staff member. During her time with camp, she has exhibited great leadership and insight into the running of Camp Titan.
Affirming that Karin Lee and Taylor Scherer meet all eligibility requirements to serve as Camp Titan co-directors.

Therefore be it resolved that Karin Lee and Taylor Scherer be ratified as Camp Titan Co-Directors for the term starting September 1, 2015 and ending July 31, 2016 with all the rights, responsibilities, student leader awards and privileges associated with the positions.

Further be it resolved that this resolution be distributed to the director and staff of ASI Leader & Program Development so that they may train, support and encourage the development of Ms. Lee and Ms. Scherer as students and as leaders, and to implement the necessary protocols to provide for student leader financial awards for Ms. Lee and Ms. Scherer.

Adopted by the Board of Directors of the Associated Students, California State University, Fullerton, Incorporated on the first day of September in the year two thousand fifteen.
