ATTEND ASI ELECTION EVENTS LEADING UP TO ELECTION DAY

CSUF students are encouraged to attend election events and informational sessions.

FULLERTON, Calif. – The Associated Students, CSUF, Inc. will host its annual spring election on Wednesday, April 10 and Thursday, April 11, 2013. Currently enrolled Cal State Fullerton students are eligible to vote for ASI President/CEO, Executive Vice President, and one Board of Directors representative from their respective academic college. Students are highly encouraged to vote for representatives for the upcoming 2013-2014 academic year.

This year, ASI Elections Commissioner, Megan Martinez, will be hosting a series of events and informational sessions in the weeks leading up to the election. The events and sessions ensure candidates understand the elections rules and regulations and provide the Cal State Fullerton student body the tools and information needed to make the most informed and educated decision this election. Additionally, students that attend any of the elections events will be entered in an opportunity drawing to win a Fall 2013 parking permit.

If you attend classes at the Irvine Campus, or just want to stop by, students can attend Coffee with the Candidates on Thursday March 21st from 5-7 pm to meet the candidates for ASI President/Vice President and Board of Director candidates.

-more-
On Friday March 22, candidates running in the elections are strongly encouraged to attend the informational session, “Learning the Rules – Campaigning 101.” The session will take place in the TSU Underground Pub from 11am-1pm.

On Tuesday March 26 from 9-10:30am, students are encouraged to meet the candidates and get informed about all their different platforms, goals, and visions if elected for the 2013-2014 academic year. The following day, Wednesday March 27 on Titan Walk there will be an ASI Election Kickoff event where students can learn more information about elections and meet and greet with the candidates from 12-1pm on Titan Walk.

Following Spring Break, on Tuesday April 9 there will be two different candidate debates for students to attend. The Presidential Debate, where students can ask questions of the President/Vice President teams, will be in the Central Quad from 12-1pm. Later that evening, students can attend the Board of Directors Candidate Debate in the TSU Pavilions from 7:30-9:00pm. Students are encouraged to attend and participate in both debates.

On April 10 and 11 ASI Election voting begins at 8:00 a.m. There will be five different polling stations around campus. Student can cast their vote at a polling station or through the campus wifi at vote.fullerton.edu. Only currently-enrolled CSUF students are eligible to vote in the election. Additionally, every student that votes will receive a Titan Reward Point, redeemable at the Titan Pride Center for CSUF gear.

For more information regarding the upcoming ASI elections, visit asi.fullerton.edu or contact the ASI Election Commissioner, Megan Martinez, at (657) 278-3296.

###

The Associated Students, California State University, Fullerton, Incorporated (ASI) is the recognized student government at California State University, Fullerton, advocating student interests on-campus and in local, state and national forums. The ASI strives to develop relevant and quality-minded services, facilities, and experiences, which are responsive to members of the campus and surrounding communities.