Tis’ the Season for Giving to the Camp Titan Toy Drive
Spread some cheer and make a toy donation this holiday season.

FULLERTON, (CA) — Camp Titan, the official philanthropy of Associated Students, Inc. (ASI), is hosting its annual Toy Drive from Nov. 1 through Dec. 5. All donations collected will go to support underprivileged children in Orange County. Gifts can be dropped off at the TSU Information and Services Desk. These gifts are then presented at the Camp Titan Holiday Party, where former Camp Titan campers and counselors are able to come together to celebrate the holidays.

The Titan Toy Drive is a campus wide event, in which students and community members alike can bring in presents for children ranging from ages 7-14. People interested in donating a gift can select a child’s name to buy a gift for at the TSU Information and Services Desk. “The Toy Drive is a very special time for both campers and counselors. It’s a wonderful opportunity to give back to the community during the holidays, since both CSUF students and community members are able to connect and give back to local children,” said Amy Freedman, Camp Titan Co-Director. “It’s also a chance for CSUF students to reconnect with the children they counseled at Camp Titan. Volunteer counselors spend a week getting to know those children and connecting with them on a personal level, so it’s exciting for them to be able to reconnect outside of Camp.”

“We are very excited for this year’s Titan Toy Drive. CSUF students, as well as the community, are always so supportive of this event and it truly exemplifies the holiday spirit. We’re looking forward to being able to share this experience with CSUF,” said Camp Titan Co-Directors, Amy Freedman and Charlotte Miller.
