“KIDS LEARN TO BOWL” AT CAL STATE FULLERTON
Titan Bowl & Billiards to host bowling instruction for youth in the community

FULLERTON—“Strike” up some fun this fall and sign your child up for “Kids Learn to Bowl,” hosted by Titan Bowl & Billiards at Cal State Fullerton. A program of Titan Recreation and Associated Students, Inc., Titan Bowl & Billiards will provide local youth, ages 5-16, with bowling instruction on Saturdays from 11 a.m. to noon beginning Oct. 22 and running through Dec. 10, 2011.

“Participants will receive instruction on the rules and technique associated with the sport of bowling,” notes Ken Maxey, Titan Bowl & Billiards Manager. “This program continues to grow each year, proving to be very popular in the local community.”

Registration for “Kids Learn to Bowl” is now open by visiting Titan Bowl & Billiards, located on the lower level of the Titan Student Union at Cal State Fullerton, or by calling (657) 278-2144. The cost of the eight-week program is $50 per child and includes shoe rental. For additional information on this or future youth programs hosted by Titan Bowl & Billiards, please visit titanbowl.fullerton.edu.

Titan Bowl & Billiards is a program of the Titan Student Centers and Associated Students, CSUF, Incorporated (ASI). Located in the Titan Student Union at Cal State Fullerton, Titan Bowl & Billiards features an eight lane bowling center, 12 billiards tables, a big screen TV lounge, video games, competitions, youth programs and much more!
