FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

COME LEARN HOW YOU CAN LEAN GREEN
A fun event with food trucks, clothing exchange and more to encourage students to Go Green!

FULLERTON, Calif. — The Associated Students, Inc. Committee on Environmental Sustainability will be hosting an event centered on increasing awareness of how students can make “going green” fun and exciting. The event will take place on Thursday April 18, 2013 from 11:30am-1:30pm in the Central Quad.

The event will feature various food trucks, a clothing exchange, a sustainable art exhibit, environmental clubs, and giveaways. Additionally, music will be provided by Titan Radio. For students who stop by the event, there will be an opportunity drawing as well as much valuable information provided by the clubs in attendance.

Amanda Lopez, Committee on Environmental Sustainability Coordinator notes, “We are very excited to finally be getting ourselves out there to the student body to show them that we are here to inform and advocate for their environmental interest.”

-more-
If students are interested in getting more involved with ASI or environmental efforts, the Committee on Environmental Sustainability meets every Tuesday at 11:30am in the Titan Student Union.

For more information about the event and ways you can reduce what you use and conserve our environment for the future, please contact Amanda Lopez at asices@fullerton.edu or visit the Facebook page at facebook.com/CSUF.Earth

###

The Associated Students, California State University, Fullerton, Incorporated (ASI) is the recognized student government at California State University, Fullerton, advocating student interests on-campus and in local, state and national forums. The ASI strives to develop relevant and quality-minded services, facilities, and experiences, which are responsive to members of the campus and surrounding communities.