LGBTQ RESOURCE CENTER OFFERS WEEKLY PROGRAMS
Get involved with the LGBTQ community and learn how to make a difference.

FULLERTON, Calif. – The LGBTQ Resource Center, a program of Associated Students Inc. at CSUF holds a series of weekly events throughout the semester at the Titan Student Union. Their weekly programs include movie screenings, discussion groups and leadership workshops. These events aim to create an affirming and developmentally supportive space for LGBTQ students on campus.

LGBTQ events are held Monday through Thursday in the Titan Student Union. Kicking off the week, “Movies Across the Rainbow,” will be held every Monday at 5pm in TSU-254, where students are welcome to join the LGBTQ Resource Center for a queer-related movie. On Tuesdays at noon in TSU-254, “Queer Talks” will be held, which is a structured discussion group for all LGBTQ students. From February 17 to April 7 the “Developing Queer Leaders” workshop will also be held on Tuesdays at 4pm in the TSU Presidents’ Room. On Wednesdays at noon is “Queer Code: LGTBQ Ladies Group,” in TSU-250. This is an informal social and support discussion group for all self-identified women that are queer. “T*Time,” will also be held on Wednesday’s at 1pm in TSU-255. This is a safe space discussion group that is closed for those that identify as transgender. On Thursdays at noon the, “1 Girl, 5 Queers” discussion will be held in TSU-254. This social discussion group is fun and focuses on a variety of topics. The LGBTQ weekly events will conclude with board games on Thursdays at 5pm with “Queer Games” in TSU-254.

For more information about these events, visit the LGBTQ Resource Center in TSU-254 or go to asi.fullerton.edu. If you have any questions please contact Brianna Serrano, LGBTQ Coordinator, at brserrano@fullerton.edu.
