Associated Students, Inc. to Host Pizza with the Presidents

CSUF and ASI Presidents address questions from the campus community.

FULLERTON, (CA) — Associated Students, Inc. (ASI), will host Pizza with the Presidents on Feb. 11 from Noon-1:30p.m. in the Central Quad. This biannual event provides Cal State Fullerton students with an opportunity to ask questions and share their concerns with top university leaders.

Panelists attending the event include University President Mildred Garcia and ASI President Harpreet Bath. They will be there to provide beneficial information to students and the campus community. Pizza will be provided to those who participate and ask questions.

“This event is a collaborative effort between the university and student leaders. It provides the campus community with a direct and open forum to have concerns addressed,” says Jonathan Kwok, ASI Chief Communications Officer. “With all the issues going on with higher education, Pizza with the Presidents provides students the opportunity to ask their university officials their pressing questions and get some answers.”

For more information about Pizza with the Presidents or upcoming events hosted by ASI, contact Jonathan Kwok at (657) 278-4220 orasicco@fullerton.edu.
