March 1, 2012

WHAT: The Associated Students (ASI), Inc. at the University of California State Fullerton, and the Titan Student Union Arts program is pleased to host Robert Landau’s exhibit entitled Rock ‘n’ Roll Billboards of the Sunset Strip at the Titan Student Union Center Gallery.

WHO: Photojournalist Robert Landau.

WHERE: Titan Student Union
California State University, Fullerton,
800 N. State College Blvd. Fullerton, CA 92834

WHEN: Thursday, March 8, 2012 from 5 – 7 p.m. in Titan Student Union Pavilion C

BACKGROUND: The Titan Student Union, supported by Associated Students Inc., at Cal State Fullerton promotes the TSU Arts Programs to encourage cultural and artistic awareness within the campus community. The TSU brings together works of art through the Arts Acquisition Programs and through short-term exhibits in the Center Gallery, Chapman Atrium, and Plaza galleries.

NEWS INTEREST: Join Robert Landau for an opening reception, slide show and lecture, followed by a Q-and-A session as he discusses his one of a kind collection of rock ‘n’ roll billboard photos from the famed Los Angeles Sunset Strip dating from the 1960s through the mid-1980s. Afterwards meet the artist and learn more about his career and upcoming works.

PHOTO OPPORTUNITIES: Capture photographer Robert Landau with his artwork in the TSU Center Gallery, during his lecture presentation as he shares his work, interacts with college students and others in attendance.

FOR INFORMATION: David DiBonaventura
Graphic Services Manager
(675) 278-7716
d dibonaventura@fullerton.edu