Guidelines for Students of Concerns

Dr. Tonantzin Oseguera

Dean of Students Office
Dean of Students

Responding to Student in Distress

Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT)

- Caring
- Preventive
- Early Intervention

Resource for Assisting Student in Distress

- Initiative created by the CSU to help Faculty and Staff
  - Identify student in distress
  - Respond to student
  - Refer student

Dean of Students & BIT Chair
Dr. Tonantzin Oseguera

Titan Student Union 235
toseguera@fullerton.edu
Students with Concerns

- Dr. Jeremiah Moore, Associate Dean of Students
- Student initiated
- Responds to student issues regarding:
  - Concerns or complaints related to Financial Aid, Titan Degree Audit, and Admission & Records.
  - Academic disqualification complaints
  - Satisfactory Academic Progress appeals
  - Medical Withdrawal & Re-Entry Process
  - Student deaths
- Title IX Deputy Coordinator
Students of Concern

• Students of Concern tend to be referred by faculty and staff as a result of troubling or worrisome interactions and observations.

• Students who struggle with academic and non-academic problems

• Referrals can include concerns related to:
  - Marked decline in quality/quantity of academic work
  - Behavioral issues
  - Social/emotional problems
Students of Concern

• Carmen Curiel, Assistant Dean of Students.
• Provides case management services.
• Meets individually with students to:
  - Assess needs based on presenting problems
  - Identify and coordinate resources and referrals
  - Develop an Action Plan
  - Follow up contact
• The goal is to avert more serious difficulties and help students attain academic and personal success.
CAPS

• Students can be referred, cannot be mandated
• Overall mental wellness
• Most students of concerned are connected or appropriately referred
• Appropriate for students in distress; if serious call 911
Emergency Walk-in Hours

- A counselor is available for emergency/urgent crisis situations during regular business hours.

- After hours students/faculty/staff can call (657)278-3040 and speak to a live counselor.

- If it is an extreme emergency (potential danger to self or others) call 911.
Resources

• Students of Concern
  – Carmen Curiel, Assistant Dean of Students
  ccuriel@fullerton.edu • (657) 278-3211

• Students with Concerns
  – Dr. Jerry Moore
  jmoore@fullerton.edu • (657) 278-3211

• Student Conduct
  – Sandi Rhoten
  srhoten@fullerton.edu • (657) 278-3211
Questions and Dialogue