Wreck'd All Night Kicks Off a Semester of Titan Recreation
Come see what the Student Recreation Center has to offer!

FULLERTON, Calif. – Titan Recreation, a program of Associated Students, Inc., welcomes students to the Student Recreation Center for its fourth annual “Wreck’d All Night”. This event is on Friday, August 28 from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. in the Student Recreation Center. The night will be full of games, music, a costume contest and giveaways to kick off the semester!

Numerous activities will take place on the pool deck, rock wall and basketball courts. A “Wreck it Ralph” themed costume contest will be held awarding the winners with the best video game themed costume associated with the movie. Prizes for top winners include a bike, Hershel backpack and assorted theme park tickets. In addition fitness class demonstrations/activities will be offered including belly dancing, boot camp, hip-hop, martial arts, salsa and Zumba. Attendees may also challenge each other in inflatable sumo wrestling, obstacle courses and giant glove boxing. Students can break out from the indoors and join the excitement on the pool deck with an awesome DJ, Corner Bakery desserts and mock-tails hosted by the CSUF Student Health and Counseling Center and Titan Recreation. Bring the fun onto the rock wall with climbing challenges including: blindfold descent, top roping and slackline. Additional prizes include Xbox 360, Nike gear and CSUF swag.

During the event participants will have a chance to network and learn more about intramurals and ASI programs through a resource fair. It is advised that students attending bring their Titan Card. For more information please contact Farron Fowler, Interim Director at (657) 278-5896 or ffowler@fullerton.edu.
