- Signholders are available for placement within the TSU for directional purposes.
- Signholders must be used in conjunction with a reserved event and are available only during the room reservation hours. Signholders cannot be used for pre-event signage.
- Signs in signholders must be removed immediately following the event, and signholders must be returned to the main meeting room of your reservation.
- Specific limitations apply as to the use of tape, balloons, glitter, candles, and other decorations. Consult with the University Conference Center and/or your event planner to discuss whether your decoration ideas are allowed. All decorations must be removed from the TSU at the completion of a reservation.
- Posting of materials on designated bulletin boards in the TSU must be approved and stamped in advance at the Student Organization Resource Center.
