To calculate your eligibility index from your SAT score: multiply your GPA by 800. Add that total to your new SAT score (EBRW and Mathematics only). SAT: (GPA x 800) + SAT EBRW + SAT Mathematics = CSU Eligibility Index

Board of Directors Meeting 11/7

ASI Productions

I. Goals for ASIP:

1. Unify the campus through inclusive and diverse events
2. Balance tradition with innovation
3. Collaborate within ASIP, ASI, and the campus.
4. Retention at events throughout the year
5. Support and communicate effectively, in and outside of ASI

I'm very satisfied so far with ASIP's commitment to reaching these goals. (1) We hosted a week of Halloween events and it was a great way to see the campus come together. (2) Traditionally, our USP team brings a winter-themed event in December. This year it will be called the Chill Out and feature new and different activities than in previous years. (3) Our collaborations continue to increase. The first Tuesday of every month is our collaboration with TTF on their food days with our open mic/karaoke position. USP worked Titan Well and their nutritionist to provide useful information and healthier snacks at their three Midterm Madness Events, which was very successful, and they are working again with them for their All Night Study Events. One of USP's Halloween event in October was in collaboration with the TSCBOT in the courtyard and they want to work together more in the future on larger events. We also are working with the Communications Commission to make All Night Study a greater event and we are still reaching out to more groups and programs to collaborate on the giveaway night. We are very excited to present Lowriders with the Chicana and Chicano Resource Center and the African American Resource Center this Tuesday. (4) We have had strong retention at our events and find regulars most at Karaoke and Open Mic on Mondays and Tuesdays and the Thursday Films. We are planning on doing our ASIP Punch Cards again in the spring semester and be more effective with passing them out at events. (5) My coordinators have been communicating event information to the campus through printed materials, electronically in the TSU, and social media. We are going to be working with Celine a bit more at the end of this semester to have more coverage on social media.

II. Current Funding Status

1. ASIP has currently spent or committed to spending 35% of the overall budget

This number includes what has already been spent by all ASIP coordinators, including the contracting of talent, food for events, supplies, printing and advertising, and promotional items. This is perfectly on track for ASIP, especially since the majority of the budget is intended to be spent in the Spring Semester.

III. Events:

Past Events:

1. Monday Karaoke and Tuesday Open Mic: Weekly since school started
2. Butterbeer and Broomsticks: 10/8
3. Midterm Madness: 10/10-10/12
4. Wednesday Concert: 10/11, 10/25
5. Thursday Concert: 10/5, 10/19, 11/2
6. Thursday Films: 10/12, 10/26
7. "IT" Sure Will Be Scary: 10/26
8. Haunted Harvest: 10/29

Upcoming Events:

1. Karaoke at Titan Walk Lawn for Taco Tuesday from 12-1pm on 11/7
2. Karaoke every Monday from 12-1pm in the Pub
3. Open Mic every Tuesday from 12-1pm in the Pub
4. Wednesday Concerts from 12-1 at the Becker:
 - 11/8- Hundred Handed
 - 11/29- K Roosevelt
 - 12/6- CVBZ (also a collaboration with TTF for Wing Wed.
5. Thursday Concerts from 12-1 in the Pub:
 - 11/16: Chatrooms
 - 11/30: Jake Tittle
 - 12/7: Elijah
6. Thursday Films at 4PM, 7PM, and 10PM in the Titan Theater:
 - 11/9: Dunkirk
 - 11/30: Despicable Me 3
 - Special Screening: Lowriders on 1/7 starting at 4PM only

Strategic Plan 2018-2023

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
FULLERTON

First University Strategic Plan (2013-2018)

The Four Goals

1. Develop and maintain a curricular and co-curricular environment that prepares students for participation in a global society and is responsive to workforce needs.
2. Improve student persistence, increase graduation rates Universitywide, and narrow the achievement gap for underrepresented students.
3. Recruit and retain a high-quality and diverse faculty and staff.
4. Increase revenue through fundraising, entrepreneurial activities, grants, and contracts.

First Strategic Plan (2013-2018)

The Success!

1. A 16 percentage point gain (30% improvement) in six-year graduation rates for first-time freshmen (from 51% to 67%).
2. A nine percentage point gain (65% improvement) in four-year graduation rates for first-time freshmen (from 14% to 23%).
3. Achievement gap eliminated for transfer students (from 6% to 0%) and cut it in half for first-time freshmen (from 12% to 6%).
4. Annual gift commitments nearly tripled (from $8.5 million to consistently more than $20 million).
5. Back-to-back largest graduating classes in University history.
6. U.S. News & World Report heralds the institution as a top “national university,” rather than “top regional university,” the far narrower category in which we were previously ranked.

BOD Report 10/9/17

ASI President, Laila Dadabhoy:

This week on “What is Laila up to?”

Hello my friends,

I have a few things to do this week and am looking forward to making up for lost time:

- I will have attended the Presidential Advisory Board meeting on Monday and will be sure to include my notes for next week’s report.
- I am looking forward to discussing how ASI can strengthen its bond with the Greek community on campus by visiting IFC, Panhellenic Council, and Multicultural Greek Council.
- On Wednesday I will be discussing talking points for the Vision & Visionaries dinner that CSUF hosts to honor our alumni.

I am working with my team to facilitate a few projects:

- I am working with Celine and Comm Team to host a Legal Rights Workshop for our LGBTQ+ students. This event will be guided by the ASI Legal Clinic and the LGBTQ+ Center.
- After I gather some research on the progress the university has made as per our resolution, I will reconvene with Saba who has taken the initiative to respond to the needs of our African American students.
- I am helping Celine, Comm Team, and CEC to host a canned food drive contest that will hopefully bring the Greek community as well as our ICCs closer to ASI, all in the spirit of giving back for the holidays.

Our wonderful Chair and I have discussed my involvement in an upcoming resolution, so I look forward to working with you all on a more personal level.

The phenomenal Vice Chair Treasurer and I have discussed possible marketing solutions in regards to the Fee Transparency Resolution and I hope to see progress on that front soon.

Here are some updates from the week before last:

- The Starbucks Grand Opening was a success, many students visited the expansion and are looking forward to getting their caffeine fix in the TSU.

- I met with Jim Donovan and discussed campus politics and how ASI can contribute more effectively.
- Jared Hill, Chair of the Titan Student Centers Board of Trustees and my designee for the Philanthropic Board, and I were able to meet and catch up on all things business.
- Katherine Gwaltney, Member at Large for the Titan Student Centers Board of Trustees and my designee for the Alumni Association, and I were able to follow up on the conversations that have been taking place on that side of campus.

Thank you all so much for your understanding and support during the Unity Block Party last week. The event went smoothly and I appreciated seeing several of you attend.

ASI Executive VP, Andrew La:

Hello,

Scholarships:

ASI Chief Governmental Officer, Saba Ansari:

Hi everyone!

My staff and I have been working hard on constructing a policy agenda to adequately describe our students' needs.

Last week, we got to meet up with ASUCI & Cal Poly Pomona to talk about our upcoming district visit to Congressman Royce's office, and other ways our campuses and the CSU/UC systems can work together.

I also met with Active Minds to discuss pertinent legislation about mental health and different ways we can advocate for more counselors on our campus.

And lastly, I got to attend the Unity Block Party on 10/31 and talk with a wide variety of organizations and eat tacos.

Only a couple weeks left of the semester, let's finish strong!

ASI Chief Campus Relations Officer, Kelly Zarate:

No report.
