PRESIDENT

AARON AGUILAR

I hope you all had a spectacular weekend, we have an extremely exciting week ahead of us! First off, All About ASI, a line of outreach presentations, begins this afternoon at DIRC with Isaac and I spreading to students the immense amount of opportunities available to them within ASI. There will be another presentation at the DIRC Brave Space on Thursday from 1:30-3pm, please feel free to give a heads up to students at your Interclub council meetings and other folks you've encountered so far this semester who are interested in getting involved; this could potentially be their first step! It is our hope that through these presentations, we will capture the interest of students who will proceed to sign up for street team, one of our many commissions, or even a university-wide committee and potentially apply for other leadership opportunities in upcoming years! These outreach presentations will be occurring at other times and locations across campus throughout the semester; I'll be formally reaching out shortly to set up opportunities for you all to be prepared to present to your own academic colleges or other communities on campus if you are interested!

Additionally, with CSSA, I am currently working with Tina White of the Real Food Challenge Project to partner on a resolution that speaks out against a policy update recently discussed at the Chancellor's Office as well as looking forward to hearing from you all tomorrow about various social justice concerns you believe our specific campus community is currently facing. I recommend examining other student government initiatives we could model on our own campus as well to potentially address these unfortunate issues in the future! Other than that, you will be receiving the application for the OER Student Ambassador position I mentioned in last week's report shortly, please be sure to share it with anyone you know who is interested or even apply for it yourself! Also, Claire and I will be swinging by as many interclub council meetings as we can this week to briefly present on applying for committees; please continue to fill out the form yourselves and encourage others as well! Lastly, don't forget to sign up to help with both our first Mobile Food Pantry of the year on Wednesday and All Day ASI on Thursday, we truly need all of you onboard for these events to be a success; remember that both of these events in particular, along with our first Farmer's Market tomorrow, will be many students' first encounter with ASI; let's give them a welcome week to remember! Hope this week is nothing but wonderful for you and I look forward to welcoming so many terrific Titans to some exciting experiences in just a few more days!

VICE PRESIDENT

MANSI KALRA

Last week a few of us attended the first WASC planning lunch. It was informative and we will be having further discussions about gaining student input for the process since there is little awareness of the accreditation process.

We also started working on the strategic plan last week. We went over the values for ASI and started looking at our goals as well. I suggested adding the value of “diversity, equity, and inclusivity” to the strategic plan in order to be in line with our goals, align with the university’s strategic plan, and also to make sure that we as an organization continue to uphold these values.

In a meeting with Dr. Leon, the director of DIRC, we discussed potential areas for collaboration this year. We are working on holding some workshops and civic engagement events in collaboration. If you are interested in contributing to this discussion please let me know!

We have also been working with CAPS and University Advancement to put out a survey to assess what sorts of mental wellness resources can best benefit students. Again, if any of you are passionate about mental wellness we can loop you into this conversation.

Programming had their first event last week! La La Land at the pool was a strong event and had a good turnout despite having little marketing.

This is a very busy week with today’s farmers market, tomorrow’s mobile food pantry, and with Thursday being All Day ASI. Take advantage of all these opportunities to connect with constituents, support other areas of ASI, and enjoy the services that we are offering. Don’t forget to sign up to volunteer at these events as well!

CHIEF CAMPUS RELATIONS OFFICER

1. Presidential Appointee Commission. THE LINK IS NOW LIVE: <https://asicsuf.wufoo.com/forms/asi-presidential-appointee-commission-20192020/>
No Board members have applied yet. It is my hope that you all serve on at least one committee. PLEASE apply by September 15, 2019 if you want to be on committees related to parking, facilities, and GE! Aaron and I will be going around to the different ICC meetings this week to talk a little bit more about serving on committees. It is crucial that we have students sit on these committees because it is a place for faculty and admin to here about student concerns.
2. The first Farmer’s Market of the year will take place on Tuesday, September 10, 2019! If you are interested in assisting ESC with tabling please reach out. There will be lots of great food and an opportunity to talk about environmental sustainability

3. Mobile food pantry is Wednesday, September 11, 2019! Please sign up to help if you are interested.
4. Environmental Sustainability Commission. They are currently working to potentially collaborate for Titan Clean Air Day with the Facilities office and the sustainability analyst.
5. University Affairs. We have decided to create a “wellness fair” that will help educate students about the importance of caring for mental health but also allow them to do activities that allow them to practice mental wellness!

Thanks everyone! If you have any questions or want to be on committees, feel free to email me!

CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER
ISAAC GONZALEZ

The Community Engagement Commission had the opportunity to interact with a lot of Titans while tabling at the CSUF Dodgers Night last Friday. We plan to continue to have our presence at a lot more community engaging events like these. Our next plans are to present at the Fullerton City Council and to have a CSUF cleanup. More details to come.

The first episode of the second season of ASI’s podcast, Fully Informed, was recorded last week. It will be released this Tuesday. Our podcast is a different and entertaining way to keep our students up to date with ASI and we would greatly appreciate it if you could all share it. New episodes will release biweekly on Apple Podcasts, Spotify, and Soundcloud.

After having discussions with our Marketing & Design team, we have decided to combine the previously planned Direct from the Board episode with what would have been the second episode. I will work with Lorren, Maria, Wendy, and Sidney to film this week. We will then release the episode and launch the series at the end of the month. We are incredibly excited and cannot wait to introduce the new video series to everyone.

Aaron and I will be having our first “All About ASI” presentation this Monday. We will be presenting at the DIRC Brave Space to go over what ASI is and how students could get involved. We will be presenting at different locations throughout the month and would greatly appreciate your support as we expand our presentations.

This week will be a busy week for ASI with our Farmer’s Market, Mobile Food Pantry, and All Day ASI! I am really excited and I hope that you all are as well!”

CHIEF GOVERNMENTAL OFFICER

TORI HUST

Lobby Corps:

- Meetings will be held every other Wednesday from 4-5pm beginning on September 25th (First meeting to be held in Bradford B).
- Areas of focus for the coordinators will be as follows:
 - Isaac Alferos - Cal State Student Association
 - Adriana Fernandez - Census
 - Cassie Hallett - Voter Registration

CSSA:

- Students Sergio Escobar and William Fry (ASI Programming) will be joining us for the upcoming September Plenary Meeting!
- I have requested that two items be brought to discussion during Legislative Affairs during the September meeting. They were both information items during the August meeting. The two bills being discussed are the following:
 - AB-369
 - “This bill would require, after completion of the first year in a position and after each subsequent year, that each support staff employee of the California State University shall receive a merit salary intermediate step adjustment of 5% when the employee meets the standards for satisfactory performance in the position, as specified.”
(https://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/billTextClient.xhtml?bill_id=201920200AB369)
 - S. 2225 - BASIC Act
 - "Establish a $500 million competitive grant program to help institutions of higher education identify and meet the basic needs of students, including food, housing, transportation, child care, health care, and technology."
(<https://www.harris.senate.gov/news/press-releases/harris-introduces-basic-act-to-help-college-students-afford-basic-needs>).
 - More info: (<https://www.congress.gov/bill/116th-congress/senate-bill/2225>).
- Neither of the two bills have adequate funding sources. AB-369 will have a negative impact on where funding goes on the campus of CSUF, and where they take money out of in order to fund the increase.

2019-2020 Plenary Meeting Application:

- BOD: I ask that at least one Board of Director from each college apply to attend a CSSA throughout the coming year.
- BOT: I would also love to see applications from the Board of Trustees as well. This is a great opportunity to view other student unions/campuses and bring back great ideas to implement in our very own TSU.
- Those who have yet to attend a CSSA have priority over those who have gone before, in order to share the experience and expand knowledge of the Cal State Student Association. The application can be found at this link: <https://asicsuf.wufoo.com/forms/cssa-20192020-meetings-csuf-team/>
- You have the ability to select your top 3. I will keep you all updated on the deadlines as time goes on. However, the sooner that you can apply, the better.

CHIEF INCLUSION & DIVERSITY OFFICER
MONICA MORALES-GARCIA

I have written pretty extensively about my big events and campaigns, today I come to you with new information! Me and the SJEC coordinator Giulia have figured out a schedule for SJEC meetings!

Because Giulia and I both are race scholars that are interested in teaching, these sessions will be more informative and educational rather than light discussion! Additionally, we are both dedicated, and believe in making ‘academic’ material accessible and applicable to all students—regardless of where their starting point is. I welcome you to come and get involved in our discussions! Below is the schedule for our meetings!

Wednesday-- September 18—TSU Presidents Room—2:30pm-3:30pm
 Wednesday-- October 2—Leg Chambers 2--2:30pm-3:30pm
 Wednesday-- October 16— TSU Presidents Room-- 2:30pm-3:30pm
 Wednesday-- October 30-- TSU Presidents Room-- 2:30pm-3:30pm
 Wednesday-- November 13-- TSU Presidents Room-- 2:30pm-3:30pm
 Wednesday-- November 27-- TSU Presidents Room-- 2:30pm-3:30pm
 Wednesday-- December 11-- TSU Presidents Room-- 2:30pm-3:30pm

I want to point out that my pedagogy is intentional. I do not ‘talk at’ students, nor do I assume that I know more than others. My goal is to give students a sense of agency through these discussions. This is so important to me, as I’ve had those moments in classes and they’ve been revolutionary in my own thought and academic career.

Academic Senate Chair's Report to ASI

September 10, 2019

We are already in our third week of classes and too much has already happened. It's my time to say, "Welcome Back," and I hope all of you/us have a great year. Student leaders are essential to a college campus, given the hundreds of student organizations, clubs, and groups we have at CSUF. ASI serves a central role for almost all student groups for at least two reasons: (1) ASI manages a large amount of student fee funds, and (2) official student groups need to be recognized by ASI. You are important, and the way you govern your business affects us all. Almost all of the 50 some academic department on campus have official student groups and those groups often provide the connection between a students' academic work and their everyday lives more broadly. That connection often plays a key role in earning a meaningful degree.

My first work within a student organization at one of my colleges I attended as a student was working for the university newspaper. I performed every job but that of the editor during my year there, and still have copies of some of those newspapers we printed. I almost became editor, but one of my journalism friends mentioned that he would like to do that, so I didn't apply. He went on to graduate and work for the Chicago Tribune for 30+ years. The downside of that year for me was that I spent all my time working for the student newspaper. You can imagine what happened to my grades that year. Shortly after, I left that university. Nonetheless, that "journalism" experience is something that I would not trade away. I was involved and learned an immense amount about managing every aspect of a newspaper.

ASI is the governing body for students, analogous to the way that the CSUF Academic Senate (AS) is the governing body for the whole University (though we have no money to manage). We, the AS, does not "manage," we advise, guide and recommend.

Two of you are Senators on the AS, and every one of our 21 standing committees includes two CSUF student representatives who vote. Those positions are important and our AS committees value student input. It is not always easy for students on those committees to speak up or be heard, and that is one reason it is important to appoint students who can contribute, and also learn while they do so. Curriculum serves as the main focus of the CSUF AS, though we do have other roles. While students affect curriculum in many ways, the official guiding policies for curricular matters at CSUF are University Policy Statements (UPS) – please see: CSUF University Policy Statements. I am the only faculty representative from the CSUF AS to ASI, though some faculty sit on other boards associated with ASI.

Upcoming: The academic year for the Senate looks to be rather “quiet” at the moment, at least in comparison to previous years, when General Education issues kept all CSU Senates around the State busy. We are thus able to reflect some and devote our attention to policies and procedures that need attention. One of those policies concerns student evaluations of faculty (the SOQs – student opinion questionnaires). Research suggests that students tend to judge female faculty more harshly than male faculty. The Senate is examining that research through a Faculty Task Force, with the goal of suggesting changes next semester in the related UPS document (UPS 220.000). At that point in time, students on the Faculty Affairs (Standing) Committee will have an opportunity to debate this important issue with the whole committee. If you are interested in this topic, it is easy to find related research by going to Google Scholar and searching for a topic such as “student evaluations of professors, gender.” Very interesting.

I look forward to an excellent working relationship with ASI this year.

Please note that I am happy to meet with any of the ASI student leaders about any topic or issue. The CSUF Academic Senate website, <http://www.fullerton.edu/senate>, is available for information and reference.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FULLERTON™

CHAIR, VICE CHAIR & TREASURER/SECRETARY REPORT

September 10, 2019

Brittany Cook, Treasurer/Secretary:

Hello everyone!!

I hope you all had a productive time at Discoverfest supporting ASI, your college, clubs, and/or organizations! It was so hot though!

- I hope y'all are ready for All Day ASI! More like ASI Week with all of the events going on! We have been hyping up this day all semester, and even if you don't have the time to formally volunteer for anything, please remember to wear your All Day ASI shirts and harass (I mean, remind, haha!) everyone you run into that day to check it out. This is our day to shine and show everyone what we're made of!
- The ASI Mobile Food Pantry is this Wednesday!!! The Titan community is VERY interested in food insecurity and ASI's stance on it. It's a hot topic that most of you have expressed interest in, so please show your support by volunteering at the event, if you are able. Sign up to volunteer through Asha's email.
- Last week's Finance meeting was cancelled, but this week we'll be learning a bit more about the ASI & TSC budgets, going over this year's timeline in more detail, and talking about budget proposals and presentations from our funding/funded councils. Again, Finance Committee Meetings are Thursdays from 1:15pm to 2:30pm in the TSU Board Room. You are welcome to drop by any time or week throughout the semester. :)
- Executive Senate dates are aaaalmost finalized? The plan is to have a staggered style schedule of meetings on alternating Tuesdays and Thursdays at 5:00pm starting the 19th. Funding/funded councils will have the choice of which day (Tuesday or Thursday) works for them best. This seems to be the best system since (as I'm sure you know!) it's very hard to get so many talented, busy, active student leaders all in one place and time. It may sound a little confusing, but I will update you all once it's finalized.
 - Executive Senate, for those who don't know, is a regular group meeting that the Vice President and Treasurer (Mansi & I) hold with all 20+ funding/funded councils (i.e. all the ICCs as well as ASI Programming). It is a chance for us to all get together and collaborate, share ideas, identify problems/FAQs, and do check-ins. Basically, so we feel connected and aren't all off on our own little islands.
- Have a good week, remember to stay on top of your studies and practice self-care!

Maria Linares, Vice Chair/Secretary:

I hope you all had a great second week of school!

Governance did not have a meeting last week.

- ◆ This week, we will be reviewing & discussing passed resolutions. If you are not on Governance but your co-director is, I highly encourage you to ask your co what they learned from the discussion. There is a lot of knowledge and history in those resolutions and learning about them can be extremely helpful to you in your role.
- ◆ Governance members: REMINDER, I created the Doodle poll for our one on ones and posted it on GroupMe. Please take a look and select a date & time that best fits your schedule. If any of those dates/times do not work for you, please let me know ASAP and we can coordinate another time. As stated in GroupMe, I scheduled our meetings for an hour and a half so I can take you out for lunch/dinner. But if you prefer to meet in my office, we can do that as well and we can make it a shorter meeting if you would like.
- ◆ I posted a copy of Asha's email on GroupMe. Please take a look and sign up to help with activities for ALL DAY ASI and ASI Mobile Food Pantry. The links are below.

On a different note, I learned about an event on campus that I want to share with all of you. What I am going to share can be triggering for the undocumented community, so I ask that when you share this information, you use precaution. I received an email about a Public Service Career Fair on campus and I was going to RSVP and then noticed that US Customs and Border Protection was on the career expo list. Given recent events at the border and all over our country, I felt the need to express my concerns to Keya. I feel having them on campus is unwise and unsafe, but I know it's their legal right to attend. Because this is held in the TSU, I would like to suggest that we take some sort of precaution. If they show up in full gear students may freak out, especially undocumented folx. I was informed by Keya that the recruiters come professionally dressed. I will be working with the President of D.R.E.A.M. Co-Op, HSS ICC Social Justice Facilitator, and my co-director Melanie to figure out how we can best support the undocumented community. I have a meeting with Monica today and hopefully we can brainstorm some ideas that will help us keep students safe.

Here is the link with more info about the event.

<http://www.fullerton.edu/career/students/publicserviceexpo.php>

- I have informed Keya, Lorren, Mansi, Aaron, Monica and the HSS ICC Social Justice Facilitator.
- Here is the link to a passed Resolution in Support of Undocumented and DACA Students
<https://asi.fullerton.edu/wp-content/uploads/05092017-Resolution-in-Support-of-Undocumented-and-DACA-Students.pdf>

Have a wonderful rest of your week team. See you all tomorrow at 1:15 pm at our Board of Directors meeting.

Kindly,
Maria
