Director of Leadership and Program Development
Associated Students Inc., CSUF

Dear Asha Nettles:

I am excited to be writing to you to express my interest in the position of Camp Titan Co-Director. Going into my fifth year at CSUF, I knew that there was no other way to complete my college career than by participating in my fifth year of Camp Titan. My passion and care for this program has pushed me to try for this amazing opportunity.

Camp Titan has been one of many involvements in my time at CSUF, but it has always been the most memorable. The difference made in such a short amount of time is nothing short of inspirational to me. The children who attend Camp Titan deserve all of the happiness in the world and to be able to provide that for one week is something that will always make my heart grow. Being a counselor twice and a staff member twice has shown me the in's and out's of Camp and I believe that as Co-Director, I can use my creativity, team building skills, and passion to help this program reach the potential it always has had. The ability to select and train a cohort, and to coordinate the program with a team of driven individuals as Co-Director is not only something I know that I can accomplish but are crucial responsibilities to success.

When I initially joined Camp Titan, my goal was to leave a legacy on this program in some way, whether that be through a new song or a new activity. As I grew in the program, I came to realize that the true legacy is made in the cohort as a whole. An individual staff member can bring new ideas, but the true impact is how this group can change the children's lives. My wish as Co-Director is to create such a strong cohort that the children's experience not only improves, but the lessons learned and the impact made helps the program thrive for years to come.

My experience with children for the past four years with Camp Titan and for my four years of high school with a summer school program has given me the communication and leadership skills to work effectively not only with children but with fellow college students as well. After watching Camp Titan grow for four years, I have determined what I believe are the key areas for improvement: universal training, tradition and outreach.

The trainings have been very focused towards younger age groups. I have seen through experience and heard through word of mouth that those who are assigned the older children usually don't feel as prepared as the others. Catering training lessons to more specific age groups and covering all grounds by having specific behavioral instruction would help improve preparedness. Old traditions have made their way back slowly throughout time but by taking time to teach the history of Camp and to focus on teaching the cohort traditional songs, games, etc would heighten the spirit of Camp. Lastly, the increase in Greek participants has been a great addition to our cohort, but I find it unfortunate that we don't see much diversity after that. I would like to see more students who are involved in leadership or any children-related activity. Through effective marketing and outreach, such as social media takeovers and promotional meetings/events, this diversity may increase.

Camp Titan is a program that has helped define me as a student, leader and person, and to have the opportunity to give back to the program in this way would be the greatest privilege. Thank you for your consideration.

Warm Regards,

Asha Nettles
Director, Leader and Program Development
Associated Students, CSUF, Inc.
Fullerton, CA, 92831

Dear Asha Nettles,

I am interested in being one of the co-directors for Camp Titan because I have seen what this camp can do not only for the children who attend, but also for the staff, counselors, and rescuers who lead them. I value the unique opportunity Camp Titan provides for the kids and the character building it offers to the Cal State Fullerton students who participate. I want to implement my leadership skills as one of the co-directors to ensure this camp year is memorable for all who attend. I understand this position is an important commitment, and I am prepared to dedicate the time and effort to exceed all expectations. To my understanding, the co-directors organize and interview for staff and counselor positions, educate and prepare all counselors for the week of camp, and support the program staff with their ideas. I understand the co-directors handle conflicts that arise in different areas of camp and must handle them with care.

I currently study the development of children in school and work in classrooms with children from low-income homes for my major classes. I understand the difficulties these children face and how their troubles at home affect their everyday lives. I enjoy my time getting to know the kids I work with on a personal level. From this experience I have learned how much of a role teachers and other adults outside of family have in shaping who they are. In addition to this, I teach dance to over 200 children in preschools a week. This has taught me patience when working with children. The children range from ages two to five and some are English learners. Each school I teach at is different and you can never predict how a day of work will go. Their moods are completely based off of things outside of my control. I must analyze the situation and adjust accordingly, which is extremely transferable to a day Camp Titan.

My vision for Camp Titan this year is to build off of the success from previous camps, while also making improvements. One important concept we need to incorporate into our counselor training is how to properly listen and respond to children when they are opening up about their home lives. This past year, I participated in multiple difficult leadership sessions. I experienced the kids opening up to their counselors and rescuers about difficulties at home that are very hard to hear. I think our counselors are prepared for hearing these things, but never prepared on how to respond. Knowing how to react and respond in situations like these will help the children feel more comfortable and potentially understand how to cope with their emotions towards their own situations.

Sincerely,

Madison Buss

PRESIDENT

AARON AGUILAR

As we approach the halfway point of this semester, I would like to take a moment to thank everyone who continues to help our organization in achieving its main mission of furthering student success. As a result of the excelling efforts made by many throughout the past few weeks, ASI will be hosting a second Mobile Food Pantry this Wednesday, student focus groups across campus on the proposed ethnic studies requirement both this week and next, and an incredibly memorable Speak Yo Truth event tomorrow evening in the TSU Pub that allows our campus community to continue to captivate with their heartfelt forms of expression. These are amazing initiatives that will continue to improve in their impact on our fellow Titans with even more support; thank you for continuing to sign up to assist with or attend these events, I am grateful for the opportunities we as ASI continue to create.

This past week saw review and feedback on the in-progress resolution in support of a permanent food pantry on our campus; thank you to all who provided suggestions and support as we near ever closer to finalizing the resolution for the governance committee. This past Friday, Doug Kurtz, the TSC Board Chair, and I had the opportunity to visit Cal Poly Pomona's pantry, receive some helpful information from their ASI President and Pantry Coordinator, and even got to see two students swing by and go through the process to receive some food. Most notably, we discussed their new income check system (TEFAP) as well as their various successes and difficulties since we last visited them a couple of months back.

Additionally, we were able to attend the welcome reception for Tuffy's Graduation Scholars this past Sunday and welcome an incredible new generation of Titans. Between the interest in shadowing & student leadership shown both there and Drew's Street Team meeting this past Wednesday, I would say that the future of both ASI and our campus is immensely bright. Between this week and next, I will be meeting on actionable regarding past resolutions and I am aiming to report to you all on the progress made by October 29th's meeting; please let me know if you have any further questions or concerns. Please continue to take care of yourselves between midterms, ASI, and other responsibilities, I have no doubt you all will continue to succeed and reach higher! As always, please let me know if you need anything at all! :)

VICE PRESIDENT

MANSI KALRA

Scholarship applications have just closed so now it's time for grading! You've all probably been bombarded with emails from me regarding scholarship grading rooms. Please go through your schedules and RSVP to the times that you can grade scholarships. I'll be sure to provide food for you!

Also, we've been having trouble with absences during exec senate meetings so please remind your councils that attendance at exec senate is MANDATORY! If a council misses three meetings they will have their funding frozen and I really do not want that to happen! Please speak to your councils about attendance at your next meeting.

I've been working with the Women's Center to host a Young Women in Politics Panel. We're just getting the details locked in and the event will be held in November! Hopefully I will have more details for y'all soon.

Last week, a few of us had orientation for the Student Fee Advisory Committee (SFAC). This committee is crucial and will be reviewing several different fees over the course of the year and will provide President Virjee with recommendations about how the fees should be adjusted for the following year. I'll be sure to keep everyone updated with the details of this committee. Hopefully by now you have all had the opportunity to review the food pantry resolution. Thank you to everyone who provided feedback for it, I'm glad to see that there is common support for this vital resource.

As always, please reach out if you have questions or need further clarification! Happy spooky season!

CHIEF CAMPUS RELATIONS OFFICER

CLAIRE JENKINS

There are just a few quick updates this week.

1. ESC has sustainability week coming up next week and they have collaborated with some really cool groups! Come out and support them (or volunteer) 10/21-10/24.
2. PAC has been rapidly filling committees; however, because of the lack of interest in the application I have decided to reformulate the process and ask students the questions on the application in person, so it is the identical information.
3. University Affairs will be having their Mental Wellness Fair next week on Thursday, October 24th. Please feel free to stop by and learn about wellness! We also just had our first UA meeting which was pretty great-- we had a good turnout and were able to incorporate student feedback into the next steps we need to take.

4. Ethnic Studies Requirement focus groups are HAPPENING very soon-- starting this Wednesday. If you are interested in assisting, or would just like to discuss student perspectives on the proposed bill, PLEASE REACH OUT TO ME via e-mail or come to my office hours. This is really important and I want to make sure we are incorporating as much student feedback as possible.

CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER
ISAAC GONZALEZ

Hello everyone. Last week was a bit of a lighter week, but I still have a few updates.

I met with the Marketing Coordinator Search Committee this week. We will be reviewing applicants throughout the next few weeks and hope to fill the position with a permanent staff member as soon as possible.

I reached out to the Street Teamers who were interested in shadowing me and scheduled 1:1 meetings with them. I am glad to see how excited they are to get involved. If you got students interested in shadowing you, I definitely recommend that you give them a good look inside ASI so that more students become interested in getting involved with ASI in the future. I also had the opportunity to table at the Tuffy's Graduation Scholars reception. It was very heartwarming and exciting to see all of those new scholars. Lots of them were interested in ASI and I cannot wait to see them get involved as well.

The Community Engagement Commission and I have been preparing remarks for the Fullerton City Council. We will be attending this week's City Council meeting to introduce ourselves to City Council members and see how we could work with them to expand our engagement with the city. The Community Engagement Commission is also planning their next event. They will be having a cleanup at Chapman Park next Friday, October 25th from 10 AM to 12 PM. We will have a registration link soon and we would greatly appreciate it if you could share it.

We are planning to film the second episode of Direct from the Board with Skylar and Jakob this week. We will be recapping the following meetings during the episode: Sept. 17, Sept. 24, Oct. 1, Oct. 8, and Oct. 15. Let me know if there is anything specifically that you'd like us to cover and if you have any feedback from our first episode.

The Communications Commission and I have begun planning our weeklong campaign for our Tuffy's Basic Needs Center. We will have a donation drive, marketing campaign, and other events during Hunger and Homelessness Awareness week, November 18th-22nd. We are open to collaboration so let us know if you have any ideas

Lobby Corps:

- Adriana Fernandez, Cassie Hallett and I traveled down to UC San Diego for the first ever CA Higher Education Voter Registration Summit. We learned a lot about how to engage students in voting and what tools can help us in being successful. Fresno State, CSU Bakersfield and Cal Poly SLO representatives showed up as well!
- Next commission meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 16th from 4-5pm in Gabrielino! This commission meeting will be led by Isaac Alferos.
- Due to a personal injury, I did not have the ability to plan for such a large event and will be postponing the Debate Watch Party until the November Debate. I apologize in advanced, but want to make the event the best it can be. Additionally if you are still interested in attending a Debate Watch Party in campus, the YDSA club will be hosting one in the Titan Theatre this Tuesday. Feel free to contact me for more information!

CSSA:

- Prashant Sharma (Board of Trustees) and Cassie Hallett (Lobby Corps Coordinator) will be attending the October CSSA this weekend at Fresno State!
- For future CSSAs: You can apply to your top three plenary meetings at the following link: <https://asicsuf.wufoo.com/forms/cssa-20192020-meetings-csuf-team/>.
- I presented to the Board of Trustees last week to encourage them to get involved and attend Plenary meetings.
- Though I did request for AB 1460 to be discussed at CSSA, it was not placed on the agenda this month. However, we plan to get it on the agenda in November to learn more about the impact of the bill on other campuses, as well as how we can help shape what this will look like across the CSU.

MONICA MORALES-GARCIA

This will be extremely short and an easy read.

Pictures for visibility campaign have been taken and every one looks so beautiful, I cannot even express how excited I am to be able to show these folks off!

Lastly, I had a meeting regarding affordable housing on campus. What does that look like? Could it happen? How will it impact students? I am really interested / invested in this and if you are too I'd love to sit down and chat together, and figure out what steps we have to take to make it possible and/or get those conversations started.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FULLERTON™

CHAIR, VICE CHAIR & TREASURER/SECRETARY REPORT

October 15, 2019

Brittany Cook, Treasurer/Secretary:

Hello!

We're officially halfway there: it's week 8!

- Finance Committee

- Last week, we approved an large expenditure for PASA's Friendship Games. A single expenditure over $5,000 must be approved by the Finance Committee. In this case, their large expenditure was for UPD (especially since it is a weekend and the officers need to be compensated for overtime). It sounded like an amazing event! It take place on-campus Sunday, October 20th.
- We also approved the $8,289 contingency request for SWANA Week which takes place October 21st - 24. We all wished that AICA could have funded this event, but because of miscommunications, the SWANA Week proposal was unable to be on AICA's agenda for approval. I'll be investigating this matter further, especially since SWANA Week will ideally be a reoccurring event, but in the meantime, we supported these student leaders and their request through our contingency funds.
- As of writing this, I don't know just yet what will be on Thursday's agenda. My 1:1 with Lionel was postponed since he was at a conference, but stay tuned! It should be posted after 1:15pm on Monday.

- Executive Senate

- This was a repeat from last week (resources, budget orientation dates, and student leader stipends). It seems that most student leaders have 5 stipend-receiving members on their e-board. This was a topic on one of Governance's agendas, so I gathered more info from the student leaders during our meetings.
- We are having minor issues with attendance. I would call anyone out since I believe it's just because of miscommunication that these meetings are mandatory. Missing 3 meetings within the academic year WILL freeze their accounts' funds, so it is very important that student leaders attend Exec Senate.
- Our next cycle of meetings is Thursday 5-6pm in the TSU Board Room!

You got this!

Brittany

Maria Linares, Vice Chair/Secretary:

Greetings ASI,

Informational:

◆ I will be meeting with Claire tomorrow Tuesday at 10am in the exec offices. We will discuss details for the focus groups regarding ethnic studies. Please join us if you would like to help. Here is the latest version of AB 1460 so you are well prepared. You may be approached by students asking what you know about the bill. I have been approached more than once.

https://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/billTextClient.xhtml?bill\_id=201920200AB1460

◆ I also posted this on Group Me last week Tuesday. This is a video of Shirley Weber who sponsored AB 1460. Please share the video with anyone you think may benefit from watching it. It truly is such an important bill and will affect many students.

Have a wonderful rest of your week and good luck with midterms! See you all tomorrow at 1:15 pm at our Board of Directors meeting.

Kindly,
