BiO: By the age of 12, Flor Edwards had lived in 24 different locations across three continents as her family was always on the move to escape the Anticrist and in preparation for the Apocalypse of 1993.

Apocalypse Child: A Life in End Times chronicles her nomadic and isolated youth, whimsically referring to herself as a middle-class, Schmidt, Edward's clean-cut as a measure of normalcy in a child's life on the fringe.

For years ago in The Children of God, a controversial new religious movement that began in Huntington Beach in 1968 in "Trans for Christ" and still operates today. "The Family International" many, including Edwards, describe it as "cult".

Apocalypse did not happen in 1993. Edwards said her family left, and she attended a prep school for the first time. Her academic journey ultimately led her here, to CSUF, and in 2011 with a degree in Communications.

Please join CSUF's Religious Studies Department and professors Dr. Jacaranda Bandy Salinas and Dr. James Williams for Edwards back to her Alzava Master to discuss her book and experience within the Children of Apocalypse Child will be for sale at the event and at the Titan bookstore.

N/A--I'm only interested in the above

Tell us about yourself (tell us about your background, your past experiences, and what makes you a good candidate for the position; include any information that you think appropriate and important for us to know): *

I have had a multitude of different life, school, and work experiences that have been used to prepare me for this potential role. I believe I already hold the role and responsibility of a community and campus leader, so I am not worried about the pressures this role may hand me, all I would need to do is adapt to the role and the techniques that this position requires to be successful. Some of my experiences that prepare me are: being a Founder/President/Membership educator of a Multicultural Fraternity dedicated to changing the narrative of toxic masculinity, rape culture, and westernized ideologies, serving as the Chicana and Chicano resource center Community Engagement Lead in which I helped develop the Soy Yo festival—an event that celebrates Latinx identity and the beauty of our individuality, serving as a Mesa-Cooperativa Delegate—which is an umbrella council dedicated to serving the Latinx student organizations by creating a space for us to come together and talk about issues as well as allow for funding to be distributed to those in need, serving as a delegate for the Multicultural Greek Council for my fraternity— a council which strives to build community with Greek-lettered organization that are predominantly created for people of color and which allows for all of our organizations to collaborate and build with one another, serving as a member/consultant of Abled Advocators—an organization dedicated to combatting ableism and striving to find equitable structural support on campus, as well as serving as the originator of Speak Yo Truth Tuesdays last Fall for ASI productions— in which I was able to help develop a space for marginalized folks to be open, vulnerable, and raw with one another in community. I have had quite the experience as a leader on campus, but I have also led initiatives on campus: participating in civil disobedience against the separation of families this past summer on two occasions—once getting arrested and beat by the police, participating in the OC poetry club's Open Mic nights, canvassing for United We Dream— an immigrant rights organization, and battling depression and healing from my generational traumas I have been born into. These experiences have developed me into someone who is authentic, someone who admits his mistakes and grows from them, someone who is committed to healing himself and others, and someone who always follows his heart and is a leader. My life experiences, as well as my skills organizing, creating new initiatives, and connection to my community will help me serve in this position. My ability to empathize and feel WITH (not for) others will allow me to do what's right for my community and fight alongside other advocates to create a more systematically equitable campus. My ability to admit my mistakes will allow me to be trusted with all and not come off as presumptuous and pompous, but rather humble. My ability to grow and heal, will allow me to heal the oppressive structures that be and allow my light to bring joy to my peers and community. And my ability to lead will allow me to follow the hearts of my community, and vice versa.

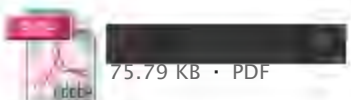

Tell us what you think the purpose of ASI Programming is and why you want to be a part of ASI leadership (tell us why you think ASI does what it does, what you hope to get out of the experience, and what you hope to learn): *

The purpose of ASI programming is to serve the needs of its community, first and foremost. In my opinion, we must first really love our community in order to spread love to it, which is what I believe ASI programming is meant to do. We are meant to spread love, and be able to let our community feel the essence of community, while not being over-bearing. We are meant to be the pillar of hope in our community, creating programs that will entice, heal, and help our community bonds grow.

Our purpose is to allow for others to feel that same love we have, about our campus and our community. Whether through art, music events, poetry, concerts, special diversity events, etc., our purpose is to spread that love. Love is not always easy, and thus our purpose here at ASI Programming is to lead the charge, and do the work that will help these great causes along. We are meant to be teachers and learners, for we must know that it is our community that makes us who we are. Our purpose is to be so deep within our community, that we know which and what events are needed and wanted at any moment. Our purpose is to heal, and replenish that love.

AICA Diversity Chair App

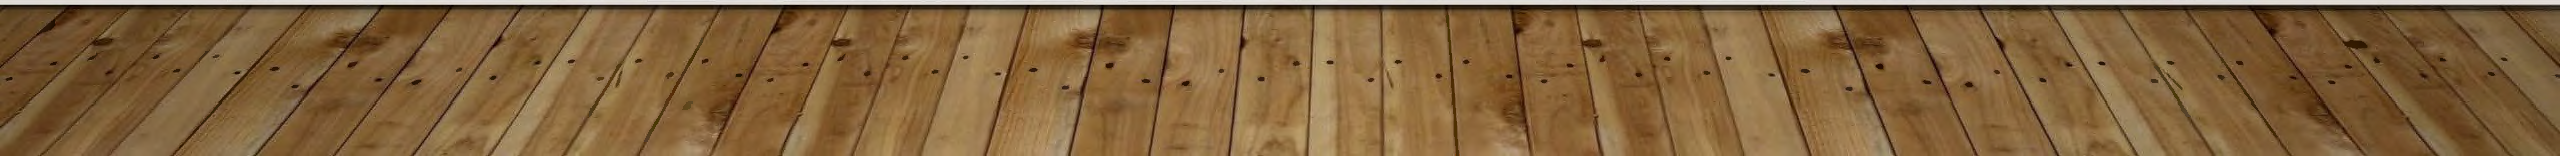

1. In your own words, describe the purpose of AICA?
 - a. The purpose of AICA is to allow for cultural enlightenment and empowerment. It is an organization and council that allows for the enlightenment and education of folks who may have been culturally-naïve in the past and allows them to empathize with folks from other marginalized-identities. It allows these folks, who may have not ever shared the same experiences, to come together in community and embrace. It allows for folks who may already feel culturally-empowered, to delve deeper into the roots and learn more about the intersections that their identities are inherently laced with.
2. Tell us why you think multiculturalism and diversity is important at CSUF
 - a. I believe multiculturalism and diversity is important at CSUF because our University should yearn to be a Mecca of culture and the intersection of perspective and identities of our community. Through diversity, is where we learn to outgrow our comfort zones and thus become comfortable in discomfort. Through diversity, is where we may learn new things about ourselves and why our boundaries may be up. Through diversity, is where we learn to speak WITH, not FOR, our community and learn the importance of fighting for folks of marginalized backgrounds. Through diversity, we learn that there is no “universal standard,” and that any such presuppositions show our inherent socialization in the western culture that we came from and that our society is based on a “white-patriarchal epistemologic framework” and thus diversity and the SPECIFIC experiences marginalized folks go through is what is going to heal our society and allow for actual growth. Through diversity, we heal our systemic traumas and grow as individuals and as a society.
3. Tell us the type of events and/or which positions you are most interested in and why, including any relevant experience you have for these types of events or positions.
 - a. I am most interested in the Diversity Chair position. Within this position, I believe I have an opportunity to shape it into something it’s never been before. I’d like to help educate our community on specific identities and the different phenomena that each identity experiences through their lived experience. I am interested and have studied phenomenology, and the fact that all people experience life differently due to their backgrounds and identity. I am the Founder of a Latino-Based Multicultural fraternity, the treasurer of Abled Advocators an organization fighting for folks with disabilities, an Eboard member of Rebound Scholars an organization for formerly-incarcerated individuals and identify with many marginalized identities that help me empathize but also am someone who acknowledges my privileges and strives to check them in all of the spaces I travel through.
4. Describe the ideas or goals you have for next year for the type of events or positions you are interested in
 - a. Some events I have in mind are an event targeted towards each specific identity on our campus. But bringing in experts in to talk about how their identities have impacted their journeys. For example, Jo Koy to speak for the Pilipinx community through comedy, Zahira Kelly-Cabrera (aka black Dominicana) to speak to the Afro-Latinx community through an educational workshop, Ta-Nehisi Coates to speak for the black male perspective through a lecture, and etc. I would like to bring in experts in their field and with some “clout,” to let folks know that CSUF is actually SERIOUS about diversity. I would like to pair and collaborate these talks/workshops/performances with our on-campus orgs and departments as well in order to get more of a communal approach to the work we are doing.

5. Describe how you would promote the activities and events of AICA
 - a. Promoting to departments brings the added level of consciousness, promoting within our resource centers on campus, promoting by tabling/canvassing, doing anything/everything necessary because we know that what we’re doing is to better our community. We should promote to our departments because it is a great way to promote students/make them aware of what’s going on in campus, but also because our events SHOULD definitely be the kind of events we’d want our faculty to support. By promoting to departments and faculty we are showing confidence in the product of our events, and all the effort put behind them. We should promote within the resource centers on campus because these centers are places where groups of folx hang out and it’d be strategic for promotion. In addition to being strategic, if the events we do put on are genuine and are actually for OUR community, then we’ll for sure be backed by our community and it’d be best for all parties to promote.

ETHNIC STUDIES REQUIREMENT

WHAT IS ETHNIC STUDIES

Ethnic Studies is the critical and interdisciplinary study of race, ethnicity, and indigeneity with a focus on the experiences and perspectives of people of color within and beyond the United States. Since the emergence of ethnic studies as an academic field in the late 1960s, scholars have analyzed the ways in which race, racialization and racism have been, and continue to be, powerful social, cultural, and political forces and their connections to other axes of stratification, including gender, class, sexuality, and legal status.

The field of Ethnic Studies was born out of, and is dedicated to, struggles for cultural equity, political parity, and social justice for all people. Ethnic Studies draws on a tradition of culturally relevant pedagogy and engaged scholarship.

WHY THE FOUR GROUPS???

Each historic groups reveals and reflect how racism and structural exclusion operates.

Ethnic Studies is not a celebration of diversity or difference. It is not about self esteem or feeling good.

Ethnic Studies is fundamentally about learning from past and current tactics that perpetuate racism but the field is also about problem solving. We advance ANTI-RACISM.

THE GE REQUIREMENT

The four groups are a baseline not a ceiling.

Ethnic Studies is fundamentally comparative.

EXAMPLE

A course on immigration to the US will focus on the experiences of the four main groups and other groups such as Arab American or Irish American or Jewish American comparisons.

EXAMPLE

Women of Color in America

A course that could be taught by WGS, Sociology, History, or Ethnic Studies.

After the four groups are addressed, faculty may add other groups.

WHAT DOES ETHNIC STUDIES WANT

We do not want to disrupt or destroy GE

GE is like JENGA

A fast move can collapse GE categories and impact departments across HSS and the campus

HOW WILL THIS WORK? ISN'T THIS IMPOSSIBLE?

Since the early 1990s UC Berkeley has operated a similar requirement called the American Cultures requirement.

Faculty are trained in the spirit of the requirement in order to comply with the requirement but also to support faculty. Students take classes across the campus.

Board of Directors
Executive Officers Report

PRESIDENT

AARON AGUILAR

This past week a hateful action took place against our African American community on campus; as we continue to work towards conversations and solutions that promote healing and growth, I wanted to take a moment to emphasize the importance of attending today's BSU Town Hall. As both fellow Titans and student leaders, we have a responsibility to attend if able to and actively listen if we are to move forward from this injustice and collaboratively ensure that our entire campus community can feel comfortable once again. I hope to see you all there and continue conversations afterwards across our organization to better determine how we can further support our students and prevent future unacceptable acts such as this from occurring.

Additionally, this past week included the first meeting of the Student Fee Success Initiative Fee Advisory Committee, which is entrusted with reviewing the fee through the areas it funds. These areas include supporting our Diversity Initiative and Resource Centers, efforts to upgrade classrooms and advising, upgrade technology and class demand, and much more! This meeting saw all of the respective areas present briefly to the committee on their current areas of focus and how the fee supports student success; please reach out if you have additional questions on these public meetings.

I also had the opportunity to attend the Graduation Initiative 2025 symposium in Sacramento with our university leadership. The central message I would highlight is that while there has been much work on each individual campus to increase graduation rates and eliminate equity gaps, there is still much work left to be done; a task I am confident our campus is prepared for. If you have questions on the specific materials and data shared at the symposium, be sure to reach out; they were recorded as well!

Lastly, I was able to attend the CSSA plenary in Fresno this weekend which saw one specific area of focus: the organization's proposed letter of opposition to the proposed quantitative reasoning requirement. I am happy to report that the letter was unanimously approved by all twenty three campuses and credit your incredible CGO Tori and the brilliant delegation we brought along with having the critical conversations needed to assist in making that happen.

As we continue to move towards November, I would also like to once again thank all of you that assisted in applying for the basic needs grant; we are extremely excited to continue the development of a permanent space and finalization of our resolution and will continue to keep you all updated. As always, please reach out if you need anything at all, take care of yourselves during midterms, and have a wonderful week!

VICE PRESIDENT

MANSI KALRA

This past week I had a really productive meeting with Dr. Oseguera to review our school's financial aid statistics. I wanted to go through our data to assess how basic needs looks on our campus, and we went through our data of Pell-eligible students and students with zero estimated family contribution.

I also had a meeting with the IRA working group to finalize some details for the IRA committee this year. This is an area that is really impactful so several of our campus programs, but currently requires stronger governing documents in order to make sure that funding is being allocated properly.

Again, if you'd like to have students shadow you please let me know. I met my ambassadors last week and it can be really rewarding.

Scholarship grading starts this week. If you haven't already, please RSVP to the time blocks that you can attend.

CHIEF CAMPUS RELATIONS OFFICER

CLAIRE JENKINS

Hi everyone,

Thank you to those who have assisted with the ethnic studies focus groups. They will continue this week. I plan to write up a report that focuses on feedback and give it to Academic Senate this week. A special shout out to the executive team and Maria who have been super helpful in this endeavor!

Also, Sustainability Week is this week! Please come out and see how hard the team has worked. We will be here all week! Thursday is the Wellness Fair which is going to be wonderful as well. Students will be able to learn about wellness while making their one kit!

Lastly, please continue to tell students about committees. Thank you those that have, as I have received lots of emails! Also, please let students know that they need to meet with me to find a committee (in lieu of applications) rather than just telling me they want to be on a committee. Thank you!

CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

ISAAC GONZALEZ

Hello everyone.

We filmed the second episode of Direct from the Board with Skylar Soria and Jakob Wright. I'd like to thank them for their effort. They did a really good job! The second episode is set to release at the end of the month.

Our next episode of Fully Informed will be featuring Fram Virjee and Aaron Aguilar for a special "Ask the Presidents" edition. However, due to priority changes from both ASI and the University, we will be delaying the episode. We hope to release it as soon as possible.

I met with the Elections director last week. We began brainstorming different ways to increase our elections outreach this year to increase both voter turnout and how many students run for positions. During November, we plan to visit different locations on campus to present an overview of the elections process to encourage more students to run. Let me know if you all have any suggestions of what to include in our overview presentations.

The Community Engagement Commission will be having a cleanup at Chapman Park this Friday, October 25th. They will be meeting at Chapman Park at 10 AM and will provide pizza afterwards. You can sign up for the event with the link: https://fullerton.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_e8MnOPAGZ3Yxg45. If you cannot make it, we'd greatly appreciate it if you could share the event. Community service hours can be provided to volunteers.

The Communications Commission will be having a self-care event this Wednesday, October 23rd. They will be giving away face masks, snacks, and coloring pages at the Becker Amphitheater from 10 AM to 11:30 AM. Students who pick up coloring pages and color them will be able to DM them to @ASICSUF. The top designs will be posted on our story for students to vote on which one they like the best. The winner will win Titan gear from Titan Shops.

CHIEF GOVERNMENTAL OFFICER

TORI HUST

Lobby Corps:

- Next Commission Meeting will be held on October 30th in TSU Gabrielino from 4-5pm. Adriana Fernandez will be leading this meeting with discussion revolved around the upcoming 2020 Census.
- I invited both CSUF GOP and CSUF College Democrats to a meeting to discuss the future of Voter Registration at CSUF and how we can collaborate for the common goal of registering students. I met with President of College Democrats, Andrew Levy who is very excited about collaborating in both Lobby Corps events and working to get students registered. Lobby Corps has reached out to multiple board members of the CSUF GOP, but have not had any luck getting them to respond. We would love to work with them as well, and hope that by inviting them to various events, we can begin collaboration. We also hope to work with other political groups on campus to ensure diversity of ideas and encourage creative thinking when it comes to the different events that we host.

CSSA:

- The CSSA October Plenary was held this past weekend at Fresno State. In attendance was ASI President (Aaron Aguilar), Chief Governmental Officer (Tori Hust), Lobby Corps Coordinator (Cassie Hallett), Lobby Corps Coordinator (Isaac Alferos) and TSC Vice Chair of Operations (Prashant Sharma).
- It was a very productive weekend, which I will be happy to report to you about in a future Board meeting.

- Additionally, I was wrong, my apologies. The only committee CSUF does not sit on is Internal Affairs. As it turns out, as Vice Chair of Finance I serve on the Executive committee as well!
- Nov 16th and 17th will be held at CSU Northridge. Applications will be due by October 27th at 11:59pm. Anything submitted after that will not be considered (for this specific plenary). Remember you can apply to your top three Plenary meetings at <https://asicsuf.wufoo.com/forms/cssa-20192020-meetings-csuf-team/.Events>

Hello All!

We've moved on to a new phase of the Visibility Campaign, I'm so excited for you all to get to see the amazing photographs and share everyone's stories! Because Visibility Campaign is wrapping up on the back end we're starting our plans on what the next endeavor. I went to the Housing Construction Project meeting where builders spoke on the actual floor plans, I hope to be able to attend meetings that more thoughtfully address housing insecurity and the options for affordable housing on campus. SJEC had another meeting this past week where we spoke on the differences between gender, sexuality, sex and appearance—as well as our communities events! Shout out to SWANA week!

Lastly, and most importantly we as ASI posted a letter in support of our Black students on campus.

Anti-Blackness is deeply rooted in our institutions, what happened was one incident but it is indicative of how racist ideology is seeping out of everywhere. This is an issue that the University needs to handle in regards to where Phi Sigma Kappa stands, though I reached out to their President about ally trainings and their intentions in not just correcting, but unlearning. Part of this is understanding in what ways do non-Black communities of color do harm because of internalized racism, this is especially important on a campus with a high population of non-Black communities of color. What are we doing to make sure that our Black communities feel respected, feel safe, feel agency? It's on non-Black folx to make that happen.

CHAIR, VICE CHAIR & TREASURER/SECRETARY REPORT

October 22, 2019

Brittany Cook, Treasurer/Secretary:

Hello all!

- Finance Committee
 - Last week we reviewed the timeline of selecting a possibly new banker during the spring semester after the budget is approved.
 - This week, we will be reviewing a mock application as well as B-ICC's contingency request.
 - B-ICC was not on last week's agenda because they did not meet/contact me prior to submitting their request.
 - A few student groups and other ICCs have expressed strong feelings towards BICC's request, so if you run into any of these individuals, remind them to arrive and speak during public comment.
- Executive Senate
 - We introduced the idea of ICCs tabling at homecoming, and our Thursday group was very interested.
 - We will also be having Budget Orientations during Exec Senate on November 14 & 19th, and a makeup meeting on the 20th.
 - Our next meeting is tonight (Tuesday) from 5-6pm in the TSU Board Room.

Take care!
Brittany

Lorren Baker, Board Chair:

Hello Titans,

I would like to first acknowledge last week's event that unsettled much of our Titan community. I stand in solidarity with BSU and NPHC. I will reach out to them to see what we can do as a Board to support them. We can also discuss how to help or direct students that reach out to you for questions or support.

Asha Nettles helped arrange for us to work with CSULB ASI Beach Pantry and Generosity Feeds will be packing around 10,000 meals to donate to local food pantries on 10/26/19 from 9:30 AM until about noon at CSULB's Student Recreation and Wellness Center. They will be giving CSUF 1,000 meals that will be used for our next mobile food pantry 11/20/19. Volunteers are welcome to help pack our packets along with the larger 10,000 count.

The pantry resolution will be at governance this week for discussion 10/24. The following week it should be back on government for a vote 10/31. Then hopefully at full Board for vote 11/12. The following week will be Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week: November 16-24, 2019. Let me know if you have any questions or suggestions!

Best,

Lorren Baker
