a. Discussion: Overview of Student Programs and Engagement

The Committee will discuss SPE programs and upcoming events including tailgates, student participation, and opportunities for additional collaboration with Athletics.

Austin Ysais, Assistant Director of Student Programs and Engagement, gave an overview of the department.

Student Programs and Engagement, was formerly known as ASI Leader Program and Development.

SPE is devoted to being innovative, inclusive and inspiring and hosting a variety of events designed to unify the campus community and enhance the Titan Experience.

The sections of SPE include:

- * Programming Board
- * Association for InterCultural Awareness (AICA)
- * Street Team

Upcoming Events:

- *Social Justice week will take place in the Spring
- *Men's Basketball game December 1st
- *Beyond the Conversation will return in the Spring

Ong opened the floor for questions.

Rubio asked if students can volunteer at any time. Ysais responded that student volunteers are always welcome to join.

Ong asked if there was a system for students to give programming feedback or recommendations. Ysais responded that students are given opportunities to provide feedback.

b. Discussion: Student Recreation Center- Intramurals

The Committee will discuss post-Covid participation and the participation of women at the SRC.

Keith Hernandez, SRC Operations Coordinator shared a presentation on SRC Program Engagement in Intramurals. Data shows 16-22% female participation in intramural sports from Fall 2021-Spring 2023.

Ong opened the floor to questions. There were none.
