When December rolls around, the Children's Center begins to introduce themes of the winter season. With winter in Southern California lacking snow in many areas, teachers bring snow and winter weather through books, songs, and classroom décor. A wintertime favorite song and book is Frosty the Snowman. The activity can be enhanced with art activities (cutting out large white circles for children to color), science and sensory (making ice or snow cones to explore) and movement (pointing out facial features and marching like Frosty).

Frosty the snowman was a jolly happy soul
With a corn cob pipe and a button nose
And two eyes made out of coal
Frosty the snowman is a fairy tale, they say
He was made of snow but the children know
How he came to life one day
There must have been some magic in
That old top hat they found
For when they placed it on his head
He began to dance around
Oh, Frosty the snowman
Was alive as he could be
And the children say he could laugh and play
Just the same as you and me
Frosty the snowman was a jolly happy soul
With a corn cob pipe and a button nose
And two eyes made out of coal
Frosty the snowman is a fairy tale, they say
He was made of snow but he came to life one day
There must have been some magic in
That old top hat they found
For when they placed it on his head
He began to dance around
Frosty the snowman
Knew the sun was hot that day
So he said, "let's run
And we'll have some fun
Now before I melt away"
Frosty the snowman
Had to hurry on his way
But he waved goodbye saying
"Don't you cry
I'll be back again some day"
