

Parent Resource

<https://youtu.be/15g54TumDWk>

Why Masks Work for Covid-19 and When Your Child Should Wear One

The current California Department of Education guideline regarding masks requirements and young children states that programs such as the Children's Center should require children ages 2 and up to wear masks when possible. The link provided directs you to a 10 minute video from Parentalogue PBS Nova that begins the conversation about masks and children and provides ideas and resources for parents.

