

Parent Resource

Play

There's a lot happening during playtime. Little ones are lifting, dropping, looking, pouring, bouncing, hiding, building, knocking down, and more. Children are eager and determined to understand how the world works. Play is how children learn to communicate, problem solve, test ideas, and get along with others.

<https://www.zerotothree.org/early-learning/play>
<https://www.zerotothree.org/early-learning/play>