   a. Discussion: ASI Budget Mechanics, Methodology and Process

   The Committee will discuss the ASI Budget Mechanics, Methodology, and Process.

   Wong yielded the floor to Asha Nettles, Director of Student Government, and Carolyn Ehrlich, ASI Director of Finance, to review the information.

   Nettles provided highlights from a presentation. The presentation is an attachment to the minutes.

   Nettles provide updates on:

   - Program Description
   - Membership Information
   - Anticipated Impact
   - Historical Spending and Allocations
   - External Funding
- Budget Request

Nettles reviewed the grading rubric.

Wong opened the floor to questions and discussion.

Kelley asked for clarification on the percentages shown and what factors dictate that percentage. Nettles clarified the relevance of the percentages seen.

Fox asked how much these numbers can vary and if they are ever below 50. Nettles provided information.

Fox said he thinks the rubric closely matches the application and feels this is going to be a good grading tool.

Austin asked what has the response been for programs that have submitted late in the past. Nettles shared that information has varied from year to year and provided examples of the ways it varied.

Diaz shared that she would be concerned if an ICC has fewer clubs than in previous years and thinks gathering this information from ICCs can be is useful.

Wong asked what the penalty was for programs that submitted their applications late. Nettles shared that the penalty was 5%.

Wong said since programs have significantly more time to apply this cycle, 3 months versus three weeks, the Committee should keep that in mind when deciding on a penalty.

Fox asked how will the programs be updated and monitored when they're submitting their proposal. Fox requested clarification on what the process looks like for submitting programs. Fox believes the penalty should be severe and that when there is only a month or so left they can initiate check-ins with the ICCs. Nettles shared information on what the process would look like for applicants. Nettles shared they do send out reminders as well.

Kelley also believes there should also be a penalty. Kelley asked if there is a space to add a section to the grading to penalize programs on whether or not they provided their application on time. Nettles shared information on how the process would look if programs were penalized based on submission timeliness.

Ehrlich also believes that a category referring to late submissions would be a good idea to work in as the Committee has discussed penalizing late applications twice.

Wong asked if they can share the rubric examples with the submitting programs. Nettles shared they can do this.

Ehrlich asked if they can include the Arboretum to request the information they review and discuss as well.
Austin asked if a 5% penalty on late submissions accurately reflects the delays and increased work the Committee would need to do.

Wong asked if they can implement a hard deadline that if programs do not submit they will not receive any funding. Austin believes this is a good idea. Fox agrees and offered an example of how they can implement such.

Fox asked if we can provide an earlier deadline than what is currently listed and then have a grace period making a hard deadline of the current date they have listed as a deadline. Nettles advised against that model.

Diaz said she likes having both a soft and hard deadline.

Nettles recommended January 23 at 5 pm as the final hard deadline.

Wong asked if there were any objections to this date as to the hard deadline. There were no objections.

Austin asked if the 5% penalty would be applied to anyone who submitted after January 23rd at 5 pm. Nettles clarified when the deadline would be enacted.

8. New Business

a. Discussion: Funding Provided to Students and Student Organizations

   The Committee will discuss the funding provided to students and student organizations.

   Wong yielded the floor to Asha Nettles, Director of Student Government, to review the information.

   Nettles reminded members of a public speaker who inquired about items being purchased and the limitations. Nettles shared the Policy Concerning Funding Provided to Students and Student Organizations and explained why those purchases are restricted.

   Nettles shared highlights from the policy document. The document is an attachment to the minutes.

   Nettles recommended members refer people to this document with any questions they feel may relate to this item.

   Wong opened the floor to questions and discussion.

   Diaz asked about the $500 max for travel. Nettles shared that the $500 max is per person across any trips they may take with a given ICC.
