STANDARDS

1. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ASI COMMISSIONS
   a. All Commissions
   Commissions are charged with leading advocacy, programming, and outreach efforts on behalf of ASI. The ASI President makes recommendations to the Board on the establishment of commissions. The leadership of each commission shall be responsible for facilitating meetings and reporting the commission’s activities to the Board. All commissions must report to the Board at least once per semester. In the event a commission member should resign, a written notice of their resignation shall be submitted to the leadership of the commission.

   b. General Composition
   All ASI commissions shall be composed of at least a majority of students. The leadership of ASI commissions must be students. The leadership shall not be counted when determining if a commission is composed of at least a majority of students.

2. ASI COMMISSIONS CONDUCT
   a. Ethics
Introduction
This code will serve as a minimum guide for ethical conduct and provide guidance and direction for all officers, directors, employees, and volunteers of ASI (collectively referred to herein as members or member) in the performance of their duties or in any context in which they are perceived as representing ASI.

Laws and Regulations
All members must comply with applicable laws and regulations governing the operation of ASI. This includes, but is not limited to, federal, state, county and municipal laws, the California Code of Regulations, the California Education Code, campus regulations of California State University Fullerton, and the Office of the Chancellor, California State University.

Conflict of Interest
Members must avoid conflicts of interest. Business decisions must be made objectively on the basis of price, quality, service and other competitive practices. To avoid any potential influence from existing or potential vendors and customers, members are prohibited from accepting gifts, from vendors, suppliers, and customers, of more than token value.

Members transacting business or entering into contracts on behalf of ASI must not have any interest, financial or personal, in those transactions or contracts. Should a member have an interest in an organization with who the ASI transacts business, the member must recuse themselves from any negotiation, authorization, or approval of such transactions.

Members must not be employed outside ASI where the outside employment impairs their ability to conduct ASI business because of conflicts of interests and competing interests.

Anti-discrimination Policy
Members must not take actions that discriminate against anyone on an unlawful basis, including gender, race, religion, color, national origin, sexual orientation, medical condition, age, physical or mental disability, marital status or family leave status.

Public Disclosures
If members in the course of their duties are called to make public disclosures to any governmental agency, under no circumstances can statements be made that are untrue, or omit or misstate material facts. If public disclosures are made to the press, members must seek to ensure that the statements are clear and understandable and not misleading. All official business of ASI done on a personal device may be subject to subpoena.

Confidentiality
Members must protect ASI confidential information and not divulge such to anyone except on a need-to-know basis. Members are expected to keep in confidence such information that would be considered confidential even if not clearly marked. This would include, but not be limited to, personal addresses, social security or other identification numbers, payroll records, performance evaluations, and/or personal information. All members must refrain from using personal devices to relay confidential information.

Respect
Members must work effectively with coworkers, customers and others by sharing ideas in constructive and positive manner; listening to and objectively considering ideas and suggestions from others, keeping commitments, keeping others informed of work progress, timetables and issues, addressing problems and issues constructively to find mutually acceptable and practical business solutions, addressing others by name, title or other respectful identifier and respecting the diversity of our work force in actions, words and deeds. Members must be able to work effectively within a complex organizational setting and a multicultured campus environment. Members must be able to establish and maintain effective, cooperative, and harmonious relationships with students, staff, co-workers, faculty, alumni and the general public.
ASSOCIATED STUDENTS INC.,                          POLICY STATEMENT
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FULLERTON

Fair Dealing
Behind any code of ethics is the concept of fair dealing. As a guiding principle, members must respect and deal fairly with customers, suppliers, vendors, contractors, co-workers, and the general public. In the course of conducting ASI business, members must not take advantage of others by misrepresentation, concealment, misuse of confidential and privileged information, or any other practice of unfair dealing.

Members must not disclose a vendor’s pricing or business activities to competitors. In the course of business, all members must refrain from any practice that could constitute unfair dealing. At all times, members must be accurate and truthful in all their dealings with vendors, suppliers, and customers and be careful to accurately represent the services and products of ASI.

3. STUDENT LEADER APPOINTMENTS

Term of Appointment
Each commission director or coordinator shall serve for a full year term, following their appointment, which will commence on June 1 and end on the following May 31. An appointment occurring after June 1 shall commence immediately and end on the following May 31.

Appointment
The President will appoint all positions that receive student leader financial awards. These appointments are subject to approval by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. The President has the authority to remove any or all executive appointments.

Vacancy
In the event that a commission director or coordinator should resign, a written notice of resignation must be submitted to their respective ASI Chief Officer, respective advisor, and the Director of Leader & Program Development.

Abandonment
A commission director or coordinator position is considered abandoned if the student leader is absent and non-communicative for more than five business days without notice to the respective ASI Chief Officer, respective advisor, or the Director of Leader & Program Development.

Filling a vacancy of a student leader position
In the event of a vacancy in a student leader position in an ASI Commission, the President, in consultation with the respective ASI Chief Officer, shall appoint a new student leader to fill the vacant position subject to approval by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
