

POLICY CONCERNING EMPLOYEE CONDUCT

PURPOSE

The following policy is intended to outline certain guidelines to govern employee conduct and relations at Associated Students, CSUF, Inc. Adherence to the employee rules and regulations of ASI is necessary to ensure the organization is successful in carrying out its mission on campus. The goal of this policy is to create positive employee and employer relationships by providing for the fair and consistent treatment of staff and to ensure that all employees are aware of their obligations to the organization. This policy is not all inclusive and in the absence of written policy, common sense and good decency should be the focus.

REGULATIONS

1. CONDUCT GUIDELINES

The mission of Associated Students, CSUF, Inc. is to foster meaningful student development opportunities through leadership, volunteer, and employment experiences. In addition to out-of-classroom learning opportunities, the ASI provides campus community members with important social, cultural, and recreational opportunities as well as a wide range of programs and services. In recognition of its responsibility to enhance student life, the ASI encourages and supports the activities of all California State University, Fullerton recognized student organizations whose activities stimulate individual and group participation within the university community. To accomplish this mission, ASI has established a set of conduct guidelines regarding the behavior of its employees and volunteers. These guidelines represent a standard of conduct which all employees and volunteers should strive to achieve. The guidelines include:

- a. Accountability
 ASI employees are held accountable for their actions and for setting an example for others.
- b. Inclusion
 ASI employees are committed to creating a supportive and inclusive working environment where a diverse population can come together and successfully accomplish the mission of the organization.
- c. Collaboration
 ASI employees are committed to creating a collaborative work environment where all input is valued and an emphasis is placed on cooperation for the good of the organization.
- d. Customer Service
 ASI employees support the mission of the organization which includes providing a wide range of programs and services to the campus by delivering excellent customer service. They are eager to support their fellow employees and are dedicated to meeting the needs of customers.

e. Respect

ASI employees demonstrate respect of other people at all times. They treat others as they want to be treated. They respect people's differences and are always ready to learn the most effective way of serving them.

f. Trustworthiness

ASI employees are trustworthy. They keep their promises, fulfill their commitments, and abide by the letter and well as the intent of all agreements.

2. STAFF CODE OF CONDUCT

To ensure orderly operation and to promote efficiency, productivity and cooperation among employees, ASI expects employees to follow rules of conduct that will protect the interest and safety of all employees and ASI.

The following conduct is prohibited and will not be tolerated by ASI. This list of prohibited conduct is illustrative only; other types of conduct that threaten security, personal safety, employee welfare and ASI operations also may be prohibited. ASI has a zero tolerance for workplace violence.

a. Theft & Fraud

Any theft or fraud committed by an employee will not be tolerated by ASI. This includes: theft or unauthorized removal of property from the corporation, fellow employees, customers, or any person on the employer's property; misuse of funds or property; obtaining employment based on false or misleading information; altering, falsifying, or destroying any timekeeping record; punching another employee's time card or allowing another employee to punch one's time card; and falsifying information or making material omissions in any document or record, including the making of a statement on an employment-related matter, which an employee knows, or should have reasonably known, to be false and/or without merit.

b. Safety

ASI is committed to protecting the safety of all of the organization's employees. All of the following are prohibited: possession, distribution, sale, transfer, or use of alcohol, marijuana, or illegal drugs in the workplace, on company property, while on duty, appearing for duty, or working under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs, or while operating employer-owned vehicles or equipment; actual or threatened physical violence towards another employee, customer or visitor; violating safety or health policies and/or practices or engaging in conduct that creates a safety or health hazard; smoking in prohibited areas; possession of dangerous or unauthorized materials such as explosives, firearms, weapons, or any other hazardous or dangerous devices; and harassment, especially sexual, racial or other harassment prohibited by law or ASI policy, including behavior or language offensive to others.

c. Timekeeping, Attendance & Performance

Accurate timekeeping of attendance and satisfactory performance of ASI employees is necessary for the efficiency and productivity of the corporation. All of the following are prohibited: frequent or excessive tardiness or absences from work or an employee's work area; unauthorized use of telephone, mail systems, computer systems, or other employer-owned equipment; release of confidential information about the corporation, its customers, or employees; unsatisfactory job performance or incompetence; discrimination prohibited by law; carelessness or negligence when performing duties; sleeping on duty; boisterous or disruptive activity in the workplace; misusing, destroying, or damaging property of the corporation or that of a fellow employee, customer, or visitor; insubordination, including improper conduct toward a supervisor or refusal to perform tasks assigned by a supervisor; or violation of any ASI policy.

ASI reserves the exclusive right to determine appropriate disciplinary action for any violation of company policy. This statement of prohibited conduct does not alter ASI's policy of at-will employment. Either the employee or ASI remain free to terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without cause or advance notice.

3. WORKPLACE CONDUCT

To ensure orderly operation and promote efficiency, productivity, cooperation, and safety, ASI expects all employees to adhere to the following workplace conduct guidelines.

a. Job Abandonment

A job is considered abandoned by the employee if more than two consecutive shifts are missed without notice to the supervisor or if the employee fails to return from an authorized leave on the date such leave ends. Job abandonment may be grounds for immediate termination of employment.

b. Respect for a Non-Partisan Organization

Although individual employees are entitled to their own personal or political views, Associated Students, CSUF, Inc. as a corporation cannot endorse any political candidates. Under the Internal Revenue Code, all section 501(c)3, organizations are prohibited from directly or indirectly participating in, or intervening in, any political campaign on behalf, or in opposition to, any candidate for elected public office.

c. Support for the Mission of the Organization

All employees of Associated Student, CSUF, Inc. must support the mission of the organization including, but not limited to, the equal support of all student leaders and support of the positions taken by the organization.

d. Non-Fraternization

The Associated Students, CSUF, Inc. desires to avoid misunderstandings, complaints of favoritism, possible claims of sexual harassment, and employee morale and dissension problems that can result from personal or social relationships between employees. Accordingly, all employees, both management and non-management, are prohibited from fraternizing or becoming romantically involved with other employees when, in the opinion of the organization, their personal relationships may create a potential conflict of interest, cause disruption, create a negative or unprofessional work environment, or present concerns regarding supervision, safety, security, or morale.

An employee or volunteer of the ASI or the campus community who fails to withdraw from participation in activities or decisions that may reward or penalize the party with whom they are having a consensual personal or romantic relationship will be deemed to have violated this policy.

All employees should also remember ASI maintains a strict policy against unlawful harassment of any kind, including sexual harassment.

4. Workplace Violence

ASI is committed to providing a work environment that is as free as possible from intimidation, threats of violence, and acts of violence. Intimidation is defined as an intentional act toward another person, causing the other person to reasonably fear for their safety or the safety of others. A threat of violence is defined as an intentional act that threatens bodily harm to another person or damage to the property of another. An act of violence is defined as an intentional act that causes bodily harm, however slight, to another person or damage to the property of another.

Any acts or threatened acts of violence or intimidation will not be tolerated. Anyone engaging in such acts will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination, and may also be personally subject to other civil or criminal liabilities.

Violent behavior includes, but is not limited to:

- a. The actual or implied threat of harm to an individual, group or individuals, or relatives of those individuals.
- b. The possession on ASI or California State University, Fullerton ("university") property of a firearm or weapon of any kind (unless specifically authorized in writing by the ASI Executive Director, in concert with the University Police Department), or the brandishing of any object which could reasonably be construed as a firearm or weapon. The term "property" shall include any ASI or university work site regardless of ownership, or any location where the individual is engaged in ASI or university business.
- c. Loud, angry, or disruptive behavior that is clearly not a part of the typical work environment, including:
 - Unwelcome name-calling, obscene language, and other abusive behavior
 - Intimidation through direct or veiled threats
 - Throwing objects in the workplace regardless of the size or type of the object being thrown, or whether the person is the target of the thrown object
 - Physically touching another person in an intimidating, malicious, or harassing manner, including such acts as hitting, slapping, poking, kicking, pinching, grabbing and pushing

- Physically intimidating others including such acts as obscene gestures, shouting, and fist shaking.
- Callous or intentional disregard for the physical safety or well-being of other(s).
- Willful destruction of ASI, university, customer, or employee property.
- Commission of a violent felony or misdemeanor on ASI or university property.

This policy shall apply to employees engaging in any violent behavior regardless of whether or not the behavior is exhibited during the employees' regular work schedule. Any employee who is subjected to, witnesses or has knowledge of an action which could be perceived as a violent act, or has reason to believe that such actions may occur, must report it immediately to their supervisor, the Human Resources Director, or to the ASI Executive Director. Employees may raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal.

5. Children at Work

Due to health and safety concerns, employees are prohibited from having minors (persons under the age of eighteen) visit their worksite during working hours, unless the minor's visit is the result of unforeseen, emergency circumstances beyond the control of the employee for a limited time.

Employees must first obtain the permission of their immediate supervisor before bringing minors into the workplace. Recurring visits may result in disciplinary action. Employees will be held liable for the actions of their children during all times they are on ASI premises.

The presence of children in the workplace creates a distraction that can compromise an employee's ability to perform their duties. Employees are urged to make appropriate arrangements for dependent care and/or use their accrued leave in order to minimize incidents of child visitors.
