TIME CERTAIN

Danny Kim, Vice President Administration and Finance, provided a PowerPoint presentation highlighting various campus projects and initiatives. He was joined by Kristen Jasko, Director of Parking Services, so that she may answer any questions about the parking structure they hope to build. The presentation is an attachment to the minutes.

Highlights:

- Campus safety – Proper lighting and feeling safe are two frequent concerns from students on surveys. UPD has 31 sworn officers (including K-9 officer Glock) that are fully accredited, understand policing in a university setting, and are fully trained.
- Capital Projects – Library improvements are being made, they hope to open the 4th and 5th floors August 2019; the 6th floor is being designated for the Oral and Public History project. Fire Life Safety – Our library is considered a high rise building. Fire code standards for high rise buildings requires additional measures, mitigation efforts are being made to bring the entire building to code including: high rise ventilation, installing windows, chimney project, basement smoke control, promenade fire lane from Nutwood Ave to the library, and adding additional compact shelving.
- McCarthy Hall Renovations – This is a 40 million dollar project and the money will be used for infrastructure. However, some money will be used on second floor renovations, and a committee will be formed to address aesthetics.
- Eastside Parking Structure 2, hopefully will break ground by June. The current safety issue at the offsite parking location has put into question the option of using offsite location as a mitigation measure in the future.
- Physical Services Building renovation
• Titan Hall, Building A (former Law School) – This building has not been opened yet due to issues through State Fire Marshalls and changes in the code requirements.
• Feasibility Studies/Future Phase – Visual Arts Complex Modernization; Engineering & Computer Science Complex Addition/Renovation; and additional McCarthy Hall renovations.

Waymire asked how the parking fees will effect students from the parking structure. VP Kim reviewed the proposed plans for addressing the increases required. He indicated parking fees will ultimately increase by $98 within the next two years. Waymire had a follow-up question regarding ticket forgiveness or making a donation to basic needs to assist students with infractions. VP Kim shared the parking committee would take these options under consideration.

Pettis asked about the South Side of the Library building and whether or not the entire side needed to be renovated. VP Kim shared most of the work has been done. However, they are still working on upper levels.

Aldazabal, asked how much parking permits would increase. Jasko answered by indicating that permits will increase to $285 for Fall 2019 (currently $236); and Fall 2020 permits will be $334. Aldazabal followed up by asking if they considered the negative impact to students with basic needs. VP Kim shared that they had worked with former student leaders’ to address the need to increase the parking fees. The increased fees were put on hold due to the increase in tuition. They evaluated all options available to the campus and determined that this is the best option to address the growing campus needs. Aldazabal asked about free bus passes. Jasko shared that the former bus pass/Upass were not being used by the target student population and had significant costs. They worked with OCTA to provide a significantly discounted pass. The campus is subsidizing the pass, and approximately 700 students currently use the discounted pass.

Linares asked that the VP team talk to students to get input before implementing a statute on campus. She also asked to include students at large in committees addressing major decisions. VP Kim shared that working with ASI should provide the representation for students at large. They would rather go through the proper student consultation. Linares researched other campuses, and noticed that during the first week/first two weeks of the semester, parking is free without requiring a daily permit. She asked if this could be something to look into. VP Kim, responded by saying that will most likely not work on this campus since parking is already at a premium the first Monday of classes. However, they will evaluate it further.

Baker asked what could Art students’ at large do to advocate for the building renovations. VP Kim shared if the Dean has an art student advisory council or a student advisory council of some sort, when the time comes to give input it will be opened up for the college.

Hesgard asked a clarifying question regarding fee changes in spring or fall. Jasko confirmed it was for fall. Hesgard asked about the promenade project quad changes/construction, if there are contingency plans to ensure the project is completed on time. VP Kim shared cannot guarantee, however their target is in time for commencement. Also, the library areas cannot be opened until the fire safety lane is completed.
Bora asked about the ECS student space, and if there would be a survey of what students want/need. VP Kim shared that they are still working on the funding and feasibility stages. The details will be done later and student input will be gathered.

Borjas shared the importance of gathering student input. He then asked VP Kim to define shared governance. VP Kim clarified shared governance is very important. Capital projects have been in process for multiple years. The library as an example, 4 years ago, was impacted from an earthquake. They have limited resources and have been working on 4th/5th floor renovations to create more student spaces. Work has been done and student input has been gathered, but the start dates for these projects were from years ago so that may be why it seems new to some. VP Kim shared that they do want student input, but they may be put in a position where it is unavoidable to move forward more quickly than what students expect or prefer. The Promenade project was developed over the summer, purely because of the fire safety line issue. Original goals were to create a concrete walkway, they then re-evaluated and determined to enhance. He shared that the Quad renovation is a different story and is part of phase 2 and student input will be gathered. Borjas asked again for VP Kim’s definition of shared governance. VP Kim stated that it means you are sharing the governance of an institution and everyone has their role. The goal is to bring everyone together to consult on this project.

Mumford asked about the move to Titan Hall, and the College of Communications has projects that are pending due to space limitations and the timeline. VP Kim shared they hope to have the permit completed by January, and that he spoke with Dean Fink on space needs for the college. He indicated a troubled area was the Student Advising Center and that it needs corrections. He committed to Dean Fink to correct the areas of concerns, hopefully by January.

Brooke Fessler Owens, Director of University Events and Advancements, provided information regarding changes to the University’s 2019 Commencement program. She shared information about the grad fee and 14 ceremony cites around campus.

Highlights:
- Reviewed changes in commencement programs over the years.
- 2 year plan – survey exiting students and what they wanted to experience during commencement.
- Students shared wanting more tickets for guests, on average 10 tickets. Students want a single holistic event for graduation, and changes are being made to accommodate these requests.
- 2 year change – to ease the campus into modification. 2019 shall be similar format as to former events. There will still be 5 sets of ceremonies, however, the all university ceremony and two smaller ceremony sites will be eliminated.
- 2020 transition to a weekday format (similar to other CSU’s). This will cut costs from giving overtime to staff. Ceremonies will be held Monday through Thursday: Monday night at 5 p.m., and Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. They also plan to live stream and record every ceremony so families can watch it online.
- Reallocate resources – to implement larger and more grand ceremonies
- Creating a celebratory event for all students
Hesgard asked about the graduation fee, and if $100 out of $115 is used for planning events, what does the other $15 cover. Fessler Owens responded that it goes towards the diploma. Hesgard followed up by asking why CSUF’s fee is so high compared to other CSUs. Fessler Owens responded by saying it is all inclusive of the cost of commencement.

Rodriguez asked if commencement would be during the week of finals or after. Fessler Owens confirmed after finals. Rodriguez shared housing may have issue with students needing to move out of housing prior to the commencement timeframe. Fessler Owens shared that they will continue to work with Housing to address any concerns students may have and to extend housing contracts through commencement.

Aldazabal shared there are concerns from students because of the overall costs of commencement, and asked if the office is in control of the costs. Fessler Owens shared that fees for caps/gowns/regalia would be Titan Shops, however she is not sure who manages the overall grad fee.

Pettis asked about clubs volunteering for commencement and if the club would receive funds. Fessler Owens shared that may be a Student Affairs question.

Borjas asked what is schedule for 2019 and 2020. Fessler Owens responded that for 2019 it will be Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Friday’s event will be at 5 p.m. and Saturday/Sunday will be at 9 a.m. and 6 p.m., the current academic calendar is correct. 2020 is when it moves to the week following finals, and the schedule will be Monday – Thursday. Borjas followed up by asking for 2019, if there will be no campus wide ceremony. Fessler Owens confirmed. There will be a campus wide communication coming out to explain further. Prior to Thanksgiving communication will be distributed.

The annual conference that many black California State University Fullerton students apply to attend, titled; the Afrikan Black Coalition Conference.

The Afrikan Black Coalition Conference is an annual conference that is hosted at one of our fellow ABC member universities, during or near, Black History Month. The ABC Conference now serves over 800 Black students across the State of California. Since its inaugural year in 2003, the forum has continued to be used to address social and political issues facing the community through peer and professional workshops, keynote speakers, and social activities. After being held at every UC campus and following the induction of CSU partners, California State University – Long Beach was the first CSU campus to host the conference, which was held in January 2017 during Martin Luther King Jr. Weekend.

Specify the purpose/objective of your program/event. *

This conference seeks to unify Black students across the state to discuss and resolve issues concerning academic policy, campus climate, matriculation from the University, and political education. By bringing together Black Student Unions and Afrikan Student Unions statewide, ABC presents the opportunity for unity despite geographical boundaries. Additionally, each conference incorporates a focus on collective imagining for the organization, building student organizational skills, developing pathways for life after college, and connecting students to the larger Black struggle.

As one of the only statewide conferences for Black students, the Afrikan Black Coalition Conference is a vital tool in promoting networking amongst peers, owning our narrative of positivity and resilience, inspiring innovation in a system that honors hard facts and calculation, and providing an environment where the Black cultural experience is valued. Without a doubt, the ABC Conference is one of the most rewarding experiences Black students have during their collegiate years.

The reason we are requesting contingency and cannot fund ourselves completely is because the travel portion our account on the A–side was cut $4,500. We are also hoping to take more people this year than we did last year in order to increase the amount of information that is spread through not only our community but the school at large.

Elaborate on how these funds support student interests and concerns.
- Explain how it will adhere to the ASI Mission Statement and Strategic Plan.
- Describe its educational value and how it will benefit the University community. *

According to the ASI Strategic Plan of 2013–2018 “CSU Fullerton aims to become a model comprehensive university, nationally recognized for exceptional programs that prepare our diverse student body for academic and professional success”

Students who attend the ABC conference participate in educational and professional workshops/seminars that equip them to be more confident leaders and practical professionals even after their educational career. Students speak with real-world experienced professionals in their field of study. This type of mentor ship outside the classroom has the power to fuel a student’s passion and understanding for their future career goals.

The target audience is black students who struggle embracing/understanding their ethnic identity that have gone to ABC, have developed a new found appreciation and pride for their black identity, and bring these values back to campus amongst their peers.

Drew Wiley
Director, Leader and Program Development
Associated Students, CSUF, Inc.
Fullerton, California 92831

Dear Drew Wiley,

I have been interested in the co-director position since my first year as a counselor in 2016. Over the last three years, I have seen the magic of Camp Titan and the impact it has on the children. I want to become the co-director to make this experience possible and the best it can be. I plan to use my leadership skills to give the staff and counselors the support they need to be successful. I believe the co-director must collaboratively work to develop and implement trainings to prepare staff and counselors for the actual week of camp. In addition, it is necessary to be ready to assist with any difficult situations that may arise with the children, counselors, or staff.

Aside from my three years with Camp Titan, I have had the opportunity to work with children as a child and adolescent development major. Last year, I was a volunteer in a fourth-grade classroom at Richmond Elementary and currently I am a volunteer at Acacia Elementary in a sixth-grade classroom. With this, I assist with classroom management and work one on one with the children on their activities. I have also been a part of Cal State Fullerton’s TitanTHON for the last two years. This year, I am serving on the Morale Team as a campus representative with the responsibility of spreading the word about TitanTHON and providing energy and excitement the night of the six-hour dance marathon to help participants raise their fundraising goals.

Reflecting on Camp Titan 2018, I feel that it was a successful year that grew my understanding of camp organization. Through my years, I have learned that the connections between the staff and counselors are vital. My goal is to utilize the time we have together at meetings to provide interactive activities to foster these relationships. I plan to emphasize to the staff the importance of getting to know each counselor in their group on a personal level. In addition, I want to ensure the counselors are prepared for real camp events that take place by providing detailed insight to what a day of camp looks like. Overall, I want to use my communication and leadership skills to inspire those around me and lead the staff and counselor team to a successful year of camp.

Camp Titan is an organization I have been passionate about each year I have been at Cal State Fullerton, and that is why I want to assist in making camp the best experience it possibly can be as the co-director. I am confident my volunteer experience both within and outside of Camp Titan and my experiences as an ASI student leader make me an excellent candidate for this position. I look forward to sharing my vision with you and to another excellent year of Camp.

Sincerely,

Megan Duffy

ACHIEVEMENTS
Associated Students, CSUF, Inc.
Coordinator of the Year May 2016
New Student Leader of the Year May 2016
Dear Drew Wiley,

Participating in Camp Titan during the past two years is one of my proudest involvements and has given me the opportunity to make friends, create memories, and further develop my interpersonal and intrapersonal skills I use every day. I consider it a great privilege to have the opportunity to make a positive impact in the lives of the children who attend camp and look forward to the week of camp all year long. Being a Co-Director for Camp Titan is of interest to me because I believe I have the qualities and experience to thrive in this position. The role of the co-directors is to help manage and organize the week of camp and its training as a team under the direct supervision of the director.

I have previous experience babysitting and is something that I still currently do. Most recently, I’ve been involved with Giving Children Hope and the Orange County Ronald McDonald House, two non-profit organizations. While volunteering at these organizations, I have interacted with children from several backgrounds through preparing meals for them and doing free-food drives. Volunteering at the Ronald McDonald House has been especially gratifying as I was able to meet several children who portrayed an incredibly optimistic attitude even after a long day of being in the hospital. Overall, working and interacting with kids is something that I am very passionate about and will continue to do in the future.

Camp Titan 2017 was a memorable experience and an overall successful program. One aspect I would seek to improve would be time management and scheduling. For example, campfire is a popular activity and it would usually feel as if the time allotted wasn’t enough. I feel we can greatly improve the flow of this activity by having all rescuers and staff members disperse throughout the crowd of campers. Counselors would appreciate the extra help and campers would appreciate the interaction. I would also aim to have the schedule for skits ready before the actual week of camp in order to give participants more time and less stress in having to put together something. By doing so, we can stay consistent with the schedule and maximize the amount of rest for the campers and counselors alike.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Torres

Tristan Torres, Board Chair:
Hi everyone,

First off, I would just like to thank those that attended and participated in town hall! If you have any feedback on the event, please reach out to the Exec team.

BOT:
Wall of Fame for Intramurals and an idea for a SRC sign were discussed, see mark-up photos below. Solar panel viability is still being looked into, so I will update you all on when they come to a conclusion on that topic.

Academic Senate:
If you are unaware there was an Executive order (1110) by the Chancellor of the CSU that changed the General Education requirements for the CSU system wide. There was a lot of concerns raised by faculty in the CSU regarding this executive order. Every CSU is a little different, so every CSU is affected differently. In CSUF’s case this will greatly affect the History department, in particular faculty that teach classes for History 110A and 110B. If you have any questions concerning the executive order or this particular issues please reach out!

BOD Leadership Review:
Thank you to John and the committee for doing a great job at Friday’s meeting!

If you have not scheduled a 1 on 1 with me please do so! I hope you all have a great week!
Maisune Abu-Elhaija, Vice Chair/ Treasurer:
No written report.

Maria Linares, Vice Chair/ Secretary:

Happy Monday everyone,

Here a couple of updates for you......

♦ Governance:
  o Last week we continued discussing Board of Directors and Officers Eligibility; article XII of the ASI Bylaws.
    o We need more time to draft the suggested changes of the GPA requirements. We will most likely bring those changes to Governance as an action item on 11/15 o Resolution Recognizing Framroze Virjee was presented to Governance committee on 11/1 and it passed. It should be coming to Board on 11/13/18. If you would like me to send it to you so you may read it, please email me.
  o Reminder: Agenda for Governance goes out before 2:30 pm on Mondays. They are posted around the TSU and can be accessed on the ASI website. You should all be receiving it but if you are not, please reach out to Kristyne Robles or myself

♦ One on Ones
  o I will schedule my next round of one on ones with Governance soon. Please look out for Doodle poll

♦ BOD Resolutions
  o I will be reaching out to all board members individually to see how their resolutions (if any) are coming along and how Tristan and I may assist o The resolution for Students with Disabilities is coming along great. It should be ready for Governance by 11/29

♦ BOD Display Case
  o As I mentioned on Slack, BOD does not have a display case accessible to students who visit the TSU. I am working with Jeff and Scott to get one set up. Since marketing already has our head shots, it will be easy to do. It might be similar to the one BOT has outside of their office. The Exec team, Chairs, and Vice Chairs have posters around the TSU but not BOD. It will be exciting to see all your faces around the TSU. Your input and feedback are always welcome and highly encouraged. If you have ideas for this, please let me know.

As always, have a fantastic week and see you all tomorrow at our BOD meeting!
