Adopted by the Board of Directors of the Associated Students Inc., California State University, Fullerton, on the twenty seventh day of August in the year two thousand and nineteen.

Lorren Baker
Chair, Board of Directors

Brittany Cook
Treasurer/Secretary, Board of Directors
Welcome Back! Many projects from last month’s report continue to develop, but, as we head into these next few weeks, my biggest focus lies in implementing a successful line of “All About ASI” outreach presentations, obtaining campus community and partner support for our future food pantry, and other various campus commitments. These include coordinating with Lorren to get our board a presentation on the campus master plan from VP Danny Kim, working with Claire to get both our Student Fee Advisory & Student Success Initiative Fee Committees and our university-wide committees filled, appointing a chair for our IRA Committee, and finalizing our elections team.

In regards to our plan for “All About ASI”, Isaac and I are currently coordinating availability with folks over at our Diversity Initiatives and Resource Centers in the hopes of hosting a couple of presentations for students right before we debut our week full of events in September along with all of the sign-up and involvement opportunities that come with them. We are also working to secure space in on-campus housing that week to engage with the first-time freshmen as well! If you are interested in assisting with this particular project and raising awareness on the immense amount of opportunities we offer while potentially planting seeds for future student leaders, please do not hesitate to reach out, we would truly appreciate your help!

Next, in regard to basic needs, we are currently reviewing student/faculty letters in support of a permanent pantry as we prepare to apply for a basic needs grant. I am excited to say that we have already received several letters of support, but we would truly appreciate any more you all can offer yourselves or obtain from other students you know who are passionate about this issue. If you’re interested in writing a one-page letter in support, you still have until August 28th! Please don’t hesitate to reach out if you need any help at all!

Lastly, I would like to take a moment to reflect on the sheer amount of opportunity available during these next few weeks; there will be countless openings to table around campus and engage with students who could potentially go their entire college career without knowing they can run in an election to represent their college or have free access to a state-of-the-art recreation center on campus. These students may be slightly uncomfortable with adventuring out, but that’s precisely where we have the chance to reach out and extend a helping hand as one of their first friends on campus. I encourage you all to take advantage of these moments and volunteer your time, whether it be at our first Farmer’s Market, our first Mobile Food Pantry, or even just tabling out in front of TitanShops this week; thank you in advance for your desire to reach higher, let’s welcome our new Titans with an energy that encourages them to attend one of our first street team meetings, make memories at a future event, and hopefully sit in these same seats a year from now! Additionally, I want to provide another invitation to you all to swing by our executive offices in TSU 207 if you have an idea for a project or want to assist with one of our ongoing ones; this is the opportune time to do so before developments really take off over the next couple weeks, so just do it! Very last thing, if you have any questions at all or any suggestions for future CSSA plenaries, Homecoming planning meetings, our upcoming Wellness Survey, or anything, once again, don’t hesitate to reach out! Hoping all is amazingly well during this first week back for you all, it’s going to be a spectacular year! Tusks Up!

VICE PRESIDENT
MANSI KALRA

Hello! I hope that everyone has had a smooth transition back into the school year. The highlight of my work this past month was attending CSUnity. Not only was I able to connect with other student leaders who are strong advocates on their own campuses, but I also learned about several different system wide issues as well as steps being taken to address these issues. I attended a session about Title IX and the changes that are coming down from the federal level regarding the appeals process. Claire and I have identified this area as critical to our goals for this year, and we are hoping to meet with the Title IX office to identify areas of need and to see how we can best support their services and do more outreach with students about what Title IX actually is. We’ve talked to Dr. Vigil about revamping the It’s On Us campaign, and will hopefully be getting more details regarding the process shortly.

Another highlight from CSUnity was connecting with members from the Chancellor’s Office. Of particular importance was our meeting with Dr. Bevly, the Director of Student Wellness and Basic Needs. She spoke to us about how critical it is to support the basic needs initiatives in order to enhance student success. She described food pantries as successful and noted that they are a critical resource and gave us tools to help campus administrators view the pantry in that light as well. On the topic of basic needs, Phase 3 of the CSU’s study of basic needs was released just a couple of weeks ago. Again, the research showed that well planned food pantries serve students effectively and are viewed very positively. In keeping with this momentum, we have been hard at work to establish the next steps for our own food pantry, which is so very long overdue. We have been working with Asha to establish a timeline, apply for grants, solidify a location, and establish a partnership with the university in order to make the pantry sustainable long term. We will be reaching out to all of you for your help with this process and continued advocacy.

Aaron and I have also identified providing mental wellness resources as one of our goals. We are working with CAPS and TitanWell to create a survey for students to assess what sort of resources they need. We can offer different programs, facilities, or workshops but in order to be effective and lucrative we are aiming to get an idea of what students are most interested in before proceeding.
I’ve also been working with Austin to develop our new speaker series. We’ve made quite a lot of progress over the summer and will hopefully be able to deliver the specifics of the event to you all soon. We’ve also started the process of planning our upcoming Homecoming and setting the foundation of this event for years to come. My goal is to make this event for student focused and fun. We are working with a committee to move this conversation in a more student centered direction.

As always, if there is anything that any of you need from me, please let me know. I’ve requested to set up meetings with each college’s directors as an initial check in, but if you need anything outside of that you are more than welcome to let me know.

CHIEF CAMPUS RELATIONS OFFICER
CLAIRE JENKINS

Hi all! I hope that your first days were all that you wanted them to be! I just have a few updates pertaining to upcoming projects. If you have questions or suggestions please e-mail me.

- Available positions. I still have openings for a PAC coordinator and an ESC coordinator. If you know people who would be good student advocates or are interested in getting involved, send them my way. I would be happy to answer any questions they may have. The application link is still live. There have been a few applicants for both positions and we will be interviewing them within the next two weeks.

- Presidential Appointee Commission. As discussed before, PAC will be an application based program this year. Some of you have reached out to me in regards to sitting on committees. I encourage ALL of the BOD to apply for committees, as they cover topics such as campus facilities, academic standards, general education, parking, and many others! All students who want to sit on committees MUST apply. The application will become live this week and will simply have the purpose of gauging interest and fit with particular committees. It is by no means selective. However, just as before, the purpose of this new version of PAC is to provide students a more structured way to voice their opinions on campus, while providing them with constant support in order to boost their confidence. It will be strongly suggested that a student sitting on a committee attends 1 PAC session per month.

- University Affairs. The first two University Affairs topics will be mental health in October and basic needs in November (to coincide with National Hunger and Homelessness week). Each month, there will be at least two tabling sessions, one collaborative event (I hope to collaborate with CAPS during October), social media outreach in the form of “sticker questions” on the ASI page, and TWO focus groups that will help share the student stories that are imperative to what we do in ASI.
  o If you are passionate about these topic areas, I encourage you to reach out to me or attend UA meetings Thursdays from 1-2!

- Environmental Sustainability Commission. ESC meetings will be held Wednesdays from 4:30- 5:30, if you are interested in attending or are passionate about this-- please stop by! ESC is in the process of collaborating with the arboretum to provide students with more events utilizing the space. In partnership with RSA, the sustainability guides were distributed during move in! We are also gathering topics for sustainability month. These will likely include: Amazon fire, climate change and impact, weakened protections for endangered species by the Trump administration, environmental justice, and more!

CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER
ISAAC GONZALEZ

Hello everyone! The fall semester is here and it is really exciting to have everyone back on campus again. Here is my report on what I have been working on since we last met.

I worked with Lorren, Maria, and our amazing Marketing & Design team to film the first episode of our new video series, “Direct from the Board.” The episode will launch at the end of the week. I am now working with Wendy and Sidney for September’s episode.

The second season of ASI’s podcast, “Fully Informed” is being prepared for launch. The first episode is set to release next week with new episodes releasing on a biweekly basis. I plan to expand the podcast into also including guests who aren’t ASI student leaders. If you have any suggestions, definitely let me know.

The Communications Commission and I have been solidifying our social media strategies for the year. We posted our CSUF Dodgers Night ticket giveaway last week and in just 14 hours, it became the most interacted with post on our social media! The commission and I also had a new Wufoo form created for you all to use when you’d like to request a social media post. I will email you all this week with more information.

The Community Engagement Commission has been hard at work after our meetings with University Advancement staff. They are currently establishing a cleanup event at Chapman Park and an introductory presentation for the Fullerton City Council. They are also preparing to table at the CSUF Dodgers Night to engage with our Fullerton community.

I was also at Housing’s move-in days handing out our new ASI booklets. Thank you to all who helped out during the move-in day resource fairs. We met with a lot of new students who are full of energy and looking for ways to get involved.

Let me know if you have any questions. I wish you all the best of luck with the new semester!
Hope everyone is having a great first week back to school. I just want to take the time to cover some things going on in the coming weeks.

CSSA:
• If you would like to attend the September CSSA Plenary meeting from September 20th-22nd at CSU San Marcos please apply by Sunday, September 1st on the Wufoo link. If you do not have it by Tuesday's Board Meeting, please let me know.

Census/Voter Registration/Election:
• Census meetings are beginning to take place in preparation for kiosks on campus. Money is available for students who want to work at these.
• As the democratic candidates begin to slim in quantity, we are closer to having Debate Watch Parties. (One night debates instead of two).
• I have reached out to both the CSUF College Democrats and the Republicans of CSUF to gain help with voter registration and future events.

Lobby Corps:
• Move-In: We were pleasantly surprised to find that most of the students that we spoke to at move-in day were already registered to vote!
• Constitution Day will be held on September 17th. We will have constitution jeopardy led by Stephen Stambough from 6-7:30pm. If interested in forming a group of contestants please let me know.
• National Voter Registration Day is September 24th. More information to come at a later date.

Wow everyone, welcome back to school! As I sure everyone is, I am excited and nervous to be back and to begin our year serving students. In this report I am focusing on what I've been working on the most this summer:

• The visibility campaign called, See Me/See Us: This is CSUF
• The purpose of this campaign is to show the faces that make up CSUF and don't get enough visibility. Because of that, I'm being pretty intentional in who is given this space, which means that the students being photographed will not be Student Leaders, Athletes or Greek Life folks. Additionally, the staff and faculty will not solely be senior positions or tenured faculty. I'm really trying to make sure that the faces shown are of the students that are on campus every day without recognition-- and giving space especially to Queer, BIPOC, Formally Incarnated and students with disabilities.

- The campaign is rolling out on November 5th, where there will be a storytelling event for all of our participants, where they will be able to bring their communities and share their personal experiences. It will also be open to the public, so if someone feels moved to share their story it'll be welcome.

If you’d like to know more, or know someone that would like to be visible please get in contact with me!
ASI Farmers Market

• begins Tuesday 9/10 and goes every week until Tuesday 12/10. No market the Tuesday of Fall break

• 11:00am-2:30pm, TSU East Patio and Walkway

• Several special events will happen in tandem with our Farmers’ Market through the year.
ASI Mobile Food Pantry

• Wednesday 9/11 (tentative) 12pm-1:30pm, TSU East Patio and Walkway

• ASI Mobile Food Pantry is ASI’s contribution to the CSUF campus-wide efforts around food insecurity. The food distributed includes a variety of non-perishable foods across breakfast, lunch and dinner meals.
All Day ASI

Thursday 9/12

- Student Leader Welcome – 7:30am-11am, Various Locations across campus

Brittany Cook, Treasurer/Secretary:

- Our first Finance Committee is this Thursday and will be very informational. Feel free to stop by at 1:15 (or later) in the Board Room if you'd like to learn more in-depth about the committee, our goals, and expectations.
- I'll be visiting the ICCs within the next few weeks for short introductions.
- Executive Senate is coming together (date and time still TBD), but if anyone has any interest in speaking to/seeing all of our wonderful ICC student leaders in one room, let me know, but I will also keep you all updated.
- Have an amazing first week!

Maria Linares, Vice Chair/Secretary:

Greetings ASI,

I hope you all had a restful and fun Summer break. Welcome back!

I am extremely excited to serve as your Vice Chair. Please know that you can always come to me with any questions, concerns, feedback, or suggestions. I am here to help ALL OF YOU be successful in your new roles. If you just want to grab coffee or lunch and have non ASI-related conversations, I am here for that too.

♦ Please update your Outlook calendars. Sometimes, ASI clerical will schedule meetings for us based on all our availabilities. I suggest you add your work and class schedules on there and any days/times you are unavailable.

♦ Governance, I created a group for us on GroupMe to communicate with each other. As mentioned on there, we cannot discuss matters on the agenda, voting or anything which violates the Gloria Romero Open Meetings Act.

To learn more about the Gloria Romero Open Meetings Act please click on this link: https://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/codes_displayText.xhtml?lawCode=EDC&division=8.&title=3.&part=55.&chapter=3.&article=1.5.

♦ To meet quorum, it is important that we all show up on time, but if you’re running a minute late you can post in the Governance group and/or text me. I will be posting a Doodle poll for our one on ones very soon so please look out for that.

♦ I will end this by reminding everyone that All Day ASI and Discoverfest are around the corner. Please do your best to help with the activities that are being planned. To those who were able to make it to CSUF Move In Day, thank you! I know it was very hot, but it was nice seeing you out there representing the board. If you couldn’t make it no worries, there will be plenty of opportunities to volunteer this semester.

Have a wonderful rest of your week team. See you all tomorrow at 1:15 pm at our Board of Directors meeting.

Kindly,
Maria

Lorren Baker, Board Chair:

Hello Team,

Over the summer I have had numerous meetings. This includes a couple meetings with parking and transportation. The school is looking into alternative transportation as a form of relief to the parking issues we have. The thing they would like to highlight above the rest is Waze Carpool. When registering correctly this allows students to pay only $1 for any ride to and from school. The drivers also receive a percentage per mile. There will be Waze stands around school to help students sign up. I asked for them to create a digital file that could be passed around to help promote it. Please spread the word in the meantime.

I visited the food pantry at Cal Poly Pomona with Aaron and Mansi. If you know anyone who would like to write a letter to support getting a grant for a food pantry please let us know.

Over the summer I went to I-Lead which is put on by ACUI. In addition to CSSA and CSUnity. These events help to make connections to other student leaders and campuses which allows for collaboration and growth within our own university as we are able to learn from them.

I will be sitting on the Board of Trustees meetings on Wednesday’s in the board room. I will be reporting on their activities throughout the semester.

Please remember to submit your goals to me and the executive director, Keya. We will also be working on transitioning into Trello so we can have our goals set there and be able to track our progress. This will help us to keep track of our measurable throughout the year. We have a great team, and I want to make sure we are all able to complete our goals.

Please let me know how I can help you!

Have a great first week!
Lorren Baker
