   Pongetti said they work both the front gate and the garden.
Carlsen wanted to know how the Arboretum found student workers.

Pongetti provided that communicating with faculty is currently the best way they have found to get student recommendations; however, they are always looking for recommendations. They love and encourage student involvement.

Carlsen asked for additional information on the children’s gardens.

Pongetti shared that the garden is a discovery area for the children to learn about plant life.

Samaniego asked what was Pongetti’s favorite crop to sell or what he recommended.

Pongetti replied that it all depends on the season. We are just coming out of citrus season, but moving into stone fruit season. Pongetti also really likes the harvests from the rare fruit garden.

Dawson asked if there had been any issues with littering from students taking photos.

Pongetti expressed that there had not been any issues so far, but signage would be put up to encourage photos but no glitter or littering.

Samaniego asked if the Arboretum would be providing graduation gifts for the students this year.

Pongetti said that there was no plan for this year, but there should be a plan for that since it is a good idea.

Chammas stated if anyone is interested in starting an arboretum organization and having it registered, that would be a great idea.

Pongetti followed up with it is something that is always being talked about. He believes starting a club around the Arboretum would be good as they are always looking for student volunteers.

b. 1:45pm: Dr. Cindy Greenberg, Dean, HHD

Dr. Cindy Greenberg, provided highlights from her written presentation for the College of Health and Human Development (HHD). The presentation is an attachment to the minutes.

Chammas opened the floor to questions.

Carlsen asked if the Center for Autism is in the College and if she could share information on it.

Greenberg replied that it is located in the Department for Child and Adolescent Study. There are also observation labs on the fifth floor of the EC building where they assist with identification and early intervention.

Carlsen followed up by asking if the BSM program takes four or five years to complete.
Greenberg said both. It can be completed in four years, but sometimes it is spread out so that only one science is taken per semester because to advance a grade of B or better must be received.

Samaniego asked if Greenberg could talk more about the DNP program.

Greenberg couldn't remember where all of the funding came from, but the DNP program is a practice doctorate. Around 2013 the (CSU) system decided that it would move forward with the Doctorate for Nursing. Fullerton was selected as the lead for the area. It is an eighteen-month, post-master program that is clinically focused; not performing research, but using research to improve clinical outcomes.

Chammas yielded to Allen to introduce Kirsten Stava.

Stava presented updated information for ASI's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion program. The presentation is an attachment to the minutes.

ESC REPORT

Environmental Sustainability

Our ESC team has been actively hosting events throughout the semester to promote sustainability around campus and our surrounding communities, such as Recycled Art & Up-Cycling, Ocean Conservation, various activities for Earth Week, and Documentary Discussions. We will continue to promote these events throughout the campus as well as encourage our student leaders to attend as well.

Our biggest funding expenditure would be going towards the logistics for Earth Week which includes panel gifts, movie rights, and other prizes for students. These expenses will be finalized by the end of the Earth Week events. Other than that, we’ve spent $33 on handbills. Overall, we’ve spent $191.10 so far. Tentatively, we will be spending approximately $500 for the Earth Week events.

Details for the Earth Week events will be provided below.
Mesa Cooperativa Report

Goals

First-Semester Term: Mesa Cooperativa’s first goal for the semester is to grow and gain followers. We continue to have virtual meetings this semester, as it was voted for the council. Our way of communicating and connecting with students has been through our social media page. We have used our page to introduce ourselves (the Executive Board) to the Latinx and CSUF student community. Furthermore, we utilize our Instagram page to not only promote our Mesa event’s, but the events of the organizations that are a part of our council as well. We want Mesa Cooperativa to not only be a prominent council on campus that assists clubs with their certain needs, but also be a support system for the individual student as well as create a strong bond with them. With these unprecedented times our generation is battling, we have been working and engaging in new methods to help students. On our Instagram page, we have used the story functionality of Instagram to share resources that can benefit our student’s educational, social, and personal journey at CSUF. This semester has been successful as we have accomplished many of our goals and we are looking forward to meeting more of our goals next semester.

Second-Semester Term: For the next academic year, we plan to hold a Bienvenida, Chicanx/Latinx Heritage Month as our big events to promote the chicanx/ latinx clubs and organizations that we have on campus, as well as the resources. For this event, we plan for the next Executive board to hold this event on the central quad. With our delegates, we are going to continue on our goal of building a strong relationship with each Mesa Delegate and help them in any form possible.

Ours and Long Term: As stated previously, our long term goal for the organization is to build strong bonds with our delegates and students, as well as to assist them in any form possible. We want them to not see us as only those in charge and to keep order, but as friends, people they can trust, and assist them in any form.

Budget

A side:

Mesa Cooperativa has used their A-side account to reimburse our Executive Board members who were in charge of putting events together. The following events has been used to fund Mesa Cooperativa held events:

1. Posadas Fall 2021: posadas is an event hosted every year by Mesa Cooperativa, where the organizations and clubs host an event on the central quad with different representations of what posadas mean to them. Posadas is a tradition that follows different representations throughout Latin america. Posadas was hosted in the central quad and had tamales and champurrado with mini conchas. This event was a success, many students gathered and took pictures and did activities the organizations had planned for them. We also had a sister of earth doing cleanses.

2. Dia de los padres Spring 2022: This event is an annual event that is hosted by Mesa Cooperativa to invite parents and students to come to campus and learn about the resources that the university has for students. This semester we focus on Mental health. We had a speaker Luis Orozco from the L.A department of public health talk about the importance of mental health within the Chicanx/Latinx community. Grupo de teatro, one of the organizations under Mesa, performed scenes that Latinx face in their homes regarding mental health and how to cope with it. We provided different workshops for parents and students, a panel with 4 students talking about why they chose their careers and at the end we had a conversation about what was learned. It was very touching and emotional, listening to all the experiences and struggles from the families who attended the event.

B-side:

Mesa Cooperativa’s B-side account has been slowly coming into play since some of the organizations are still doing zoom meetings for the most part. As for Spring 2022, we have had 4 presentations for funding for which was meant for their Mental health workshops and as well as an improved night for Grupo de teatro and lastly a conversation for Women's History month. We are still recently funding our delegates and have new proposals, sent by Mesa delegates, sent almost every week.
Future Events

3. Cesar Chavez and Dolores Huerta Day: This event is going to be hosted April 18th 5pm in the Legislative Chambers. The event is going to consist of watching 2 documentaries about the farmworkers, Dolores and Cezar Chaves. Afterwards, we are going to have a Q&A with the attendees to have a discussion of their thoughts regarding the issues that farm workers still face today.

4. Final Banquet (TBD): This banquet is to appreciate all the Mesa Cooperativa reps and provide them with a certificate of recognition.

ASI Policy Concerning Executive Officers Operations

These positions are for the 2022-2023 school year. The position term begins on June 1, 2022 and ends on May 31, 2023. Some meetings and activities may be required prior to the beginning of the term for transition purposes.

Applications must be fully completed and submitted prior to the close of the application. If an application has been started, but not been fully completed and submitted at the time the form is disabled, the form will not notify you or close, but will automatically disable in the background and will not accept your application when you try to submit.
Tell us about yourself (tell us about your background, your past experiences, and what makes you a good candidate for the position; include any information that you think appropriate and important for us to know):

My name is Marcus Reveles (he/him/his) and I am a fifth year history major and double minor in Teaching Elementary Mathematics and American Studies. I am currently working towards being a high school history and math teacher. Although most of my background includes working with adolescents, I have had two official years in ASI that compliments the responsibilities of the CCRO such as understanding and navigating the structure of ASI and the university, networking and being familiar with the CSUF leadership, and knowing the committees and communities that make up and oversee campus operations. The Chief Campus Relations Officer should be trusted being the only student in a room full of university officials and to advocate and speak for the best interests of students and being the ASI President’s representative in campus wide advocacy. My experiences advocating for adding SWANA to Cal State Apply at a statewide level at CSSA, working on a campus wide resolution on the Academic Senate to give accommodations for students during quarantine to create a credit/no credit grade system, and even working on resolution and advocating within ASI to allocate additional funds to scholarships for students who became increasingly financially insecure over covid, has well equipped me with the skills to effectively serve the Titan community.
Tell us what you think the purpose of our ASI student government is and why you want to be a part of ASI leadership (tell us why you think ASI does what it does, what you hope to get out of the experience, and what you hope to learn):

The purpose of ASI is to serve and advocate for the students of CSUF and improve the overall campus experience by hosting programs, advocating for supportive legislation on a campus wide and statewide level, and to provide leadership opportunities for students. In my experience, there are minimal limits on what student leaders can accomplish and hope to continue testing those limits in order to better support our community. I want to be a part of ASI again because I believe in the mission of ASI and recognize the benefit and change student leaders have made over the years and want to contribute my experience and support in a crucial time post-covid where students are overcoming new challenges such as assimilating back on campus, struggles with mental health, and the continuing conversations around policing and campus safety. As a future teacher, I want to be able to support my future students who will have a spectrum of issues and obstacles and working with campus officials as CCRO, I will have a better understanding of how a university operates and in turn, would be able to provide effective insight to my future students who don’t know about college like I did as a first generation college student.

1. How would you describe the purpose and role of the University Affairs and Environmental Sustainability Commissions?

The University Affairs commission responsibilities used to be under the PAC but in order to alleviate the workload, the University affairs commission was created to focus on addressing campus climate and communicating their findings to the Board of Directors and exec team. They do this work by initiating ideas that engage with communities on campus, advocacy work to address concerns and the climate, and endorsing strategies that encourage civic engagement.

The ESC normally operates itself. The goals of this commission should be to find ways for the campus to be sustainable and environmentally friendly. The university does not recycle and after the “Go Brown” project to lessen water usage by having more dirt around campus, we need to find new ways to be environmentally friendly with the new beautification and renovations on campus. A focus of this commission should be to collaborate and work with the arboretum and earth clubs. There has been single use plastic advocacy in the past and would want to push for this commission to be involved on committees like campus beautification. But historically, it has always been pretty hands off.

2. How do you plan to motivate, mobilize, and utilize the University Affairs Commission to advocate for issues on campus? Please be descriptive and specific.

If I had the opportunity to lead UA, I would want to inform my team of past campus issues such as greek life incidents, TSU bomb plant, stabbing at College Park, and other big events that called for the university to mobilize, collaborate with the ASI President to allow my UA to sit on the Campus Climate Committee with her, and have additional check-ins with the CIDO, CGO, AICA, and Board of Directors. I would work with them to have meetings with Bobbie Porter to figure out creative ways to address social justice and university inequity. I would like to create a survey to see student opinions of next year's Social Justice Week, join the CIDO at their SJEC meetings, work with the CGO to learn about statewide issues and how we can find solutions on our campus to further progressive and fair legislation such as food insecurity, racial inequality, and being a strong presence in CSSA advocacy in affordable tuition, and another survey on the newly developed Ethnic Studies requirement. What I would like to prioritize is empowering my UA and supporting the goals they have for the year while also supporting and progressing Lydia and Chris’ platform and vision of the year while working with exec so we can find solutions and come up with creative ideas in a team environment.
3. How do you plan to effectively support and oversee the Environmental Sustainability Commission? Please provide specific plans and/or ideas.

Although I do not have direct experience in sustainability, I am very familiar with being in a team setting and goal setting in order to show results. According to the CSUF Master Plan, it is the goal of the university to be carbon neutral by 2050 and we have already taken lengths to reach this goal. I would want my commission to work towards supporting this plan and being familiar with how ASI can support the Master Plan in the ways that pertain to sustainability. The website of the Center of Sustainability has not been updated since many of the goals are aimed to be accomplished by 2020 which was over a year ago so I would want my team to check the progress of the goals and assist the university in marketing new goals that will support sustainability on campus. I would appoint a team that specializes in sustainability by marketing to clubs who do similar work and I would let them take the lead with their vision and empower them by providing them with the resources they need in order to succeed such as getting them in touch with the Center of Sustainability. I would have bi-weekly check-ins with the team and work with the TSC to implement better distribution of single use plastics and have monthly meetings with the newly branded CSUF Arboretum to work on new projects and programs to bring attention and awareness to their goals as well.

4. What goals and ideas do you have for the position and its areas of responsibility, and how would you improve upon what the position is doing now or has done in the past?

The current CCRO is doing a great job, specifically in creating relationships with the university and working closely with the Board Chair and exec team. I would like to continue this path by pushing to get to know key players in and out of ASI such as DEI, SLL, the President's Office, Programming, and Academic Senate. A new project I would want to work on is advocating to add more student representation on the Academic Senate. As it stands, it is normally the Board Chair and the President or their delegate. Being able to have a more diverse and bigger presence in the academic senate can lead to more student-led resolutions and collaboration between faculty and students. I would like to pass a resolution in the academic senate to do this along with the Board Chair. I would also use my networking and past ASI experience to help support my peers on the exec team and provide background knowledge to better equip them in their goals and endeavors. As far as improvements, I would like to appoint all possible commissioners and be on an organized schedule so I can equally allocate my time to work with all of my teams. I would like to also push for students to sit on faculty interviews across the colleges so the demographics of faculty can start representing the student body. As it stands, the demographics of the student body is far more diverse than the faculty and creates culturally responsive teaching that works similarly to hiring therapists who represent the communities they serve because they relate to their experiences. It does not mean we should be hiring faculty because of their identity or ethnicity but rather hiring faculty who understand and can connect with the diverse communities that CSUF serves. Another focal point of my platform is campus safety and policing. In the current climate, policing is such a controversial topic with the hiring of a recent detective and since the death of George Floyd, policing has not been the same with the public pushing police reform. I do not believe that we should get rid of UPD, but rather support their efforts in making connections with the campus community with liaison programs, invites to their trainings, full transparency on their budget, spending, and operations under the new campus police chief. The Chief Advisory Board would be a committee that I would want my UA commissioner to sit on as it pertains to campus climate. I support inviting a non-uniformed officer to sit in the audience of the BOD so they can relay to their department what kind of work students do on campus and can better make decisions knowing the kind of advocacy and effort we put into making the campus a better place for students. I believe that ASI and the campus police have similar goals so slowly progressing working together can be good for the sake of students while also keeping in mind the history of police and how they can make certain students feel because of factors such as the color of their skin and history of their communities.

5. The goals of the ASI President and Vice President center on the Titan Experience, Empowerment and Academic Success. How does your vision of the position meet and add value to these goals?

Although I am passionate about my goals and vision of the position, I do not forget that it is my duty to serve the president and vice president and do what I can to support and turn their goals into fruition. My first priority is to create goals that revolve around their platform.

Titan Experience: This is a platform that I ran on when I was president and happy to know it lives on this upcoming year. In my previous years in programming and being part of the task force that created the new programming structure, I remember previous efforts that Programming made to engage with the student body and events such as Speak Yo Truth and tailgates have not really happened since covid started. I wish to use my connections across campus with university staff and faculty on the academic senate to help market these kinds of events that students have missed out on during quarantine and use my networking to make these events as popular as I remember them. I also longed for in person events and agree that the commuter culture has taken a negative impact on campus spirit.
Empowerment: Reading the platform of the president and vice president, I notice that mental health is one of the first topics mentioned and that is a topic that I take seriously. This past year, I worked in CAPS as a mental wellness peer educator and am familiar with the structure of CAPS and how students can access every wellness resource. I will help Lydia and Chris by volunteering to sit on the Mental Health committee with Chris or Lydia to be of any aid or grant any additional insight from my work experience in CAPS. With the new space in Titan Hall, there is plenty of opportunity for new programs and ways for ASI to support the renovation of CAPS. In addition, I also noticed a mention of a mentorship idea which I am in full support for. In the college of Humanities, there is a mentorship program for first years who might not know how to navigate college and I would push for this same program to be implemented in every other college or pitch a similar structure to better empower students. I was a mentee in this same program and it helped me so much as a first generation college student.

Academic Success: I agree that academic resources seem difficult to access for some students unless they want to wait weeks for an opening for a counselor in some colleges. According to the provost, virtual counseling sessions increase the capacity of how many students can be served in a day which means that the university will continue to have academic counseling virtual to address long wait times. The provost is still new to campus and recently created the Provost Advisory Board which does not exactly relate with ASI but I would want to propose for the findings of this committee to be shared with the exec team so that way we know what students have to say about their experiences and issues academically with the university so we can help in the campus response. Although Deans come to announce at BOD meetings and I still support this, I think a more productive space can be meeting with the Deans of the colleges with just the leadership and having more intimate conversations that aren't jurisdicted by Roberts Rules. This way, the Deans will be more comfortable sharing more personal thoughts that can help us navigate our academic advocacy.

Tell us about yourself (tell us about your background, your past experiences, and what makes you a good candidate for the position; include any information that you think appropriate and important for us to know):

I am a third-year Communications major with a concentration in Public Relations. Currently, I am serving as a coordinator for the Communications Commission for the 2021-2022 academic school year. I created the Instagram TV series called "Campus Spotlight," where I highlight a different area of campus life each month. Through this role, I have gained insight into student engagement and have connected with different clubs, organizations, and departments. It has strengthened my management skills by having to coordinate my own schedule to record and edit these videos in time for postings. Besides media, I also possess strong facilitation and programming skills. During my time as a Peer Facilitator and Student Assistant at the former WoMen's and Adult Reentry Center, I helped facilitate over 25 discussions and over four workshops on issues regarding culture, society, social justice, gender, and sex. Outside of my leadership roles within the university, I am also the communications fellow for the United Nations Associations (UNA-USA) Emerging Leaders Fellowship Program. My responsibilities are to distribute internal information to different stakeholders ranging from national leaders to different state and university chapters, or through different communication outlets such as videos, press releases, and media advisories. I am an ideal candidate for this position due to my experience within the Communications Commission and within ASI. My current experience at the Diversity Initiatives and Resource Centers and active role of engagement with campus clubs and organizations, has allowed me to gain connections with different areas of campus life. Lastly, I am passionate about learning new skills and gaining growth in different areas of my life that will enhance my performance in my career goals as a public relations professional. I believe this position offers me that, I also believe I can contribute a lot within my time as the Chief Communications Officer.

Tell us what you think the purpose of our ASI student government is and why you want to be a part of ASI leadership (tell us why you think ASI does what it does, what you hope to get out of the experience, and what you hope to learn):

I believe the purpose of the ASI student government is to serve as a medium for advocating important student issues to the university administration. As ASI leaders, the students' best interests are always a priority. ASI leaders must minimize barriers students face and how to make students' learning and the college experience more accessible, inclusive, and equitable. ASI plays a considerable role in policies being implemented within each college and the university as a whole. It is also crucial to inform students on current issues and news. I am eager and looking forward to continuing my time within ASI to further advocate on behalf of students, highlight amazing clubs and organizations, and overall contribute to creating a strong student-university relationship. I hope to gain experience in strategically informing a large population (in this case, the student body) on news through strategic forms of communication such as campaigning, tabling, programming, events, and other tools.

1. How would you describe the purpose and role of the Communications Commission and Community Engagement Commission?

- The purpose of the Communications Commission is to deliver messages to the student body through different communication outlets. The university resources’ and ASI's messages should be communicated in an effective and strategic way. On the other hand, the purpose of the Community Engagement Commission is to connect students with local community events. ASI events also provide the opportunity to highlight different departments and their available resources for students. These events are meant to benefit the whole community and allow students to engage with other students as well as the local community. Events can be from partnerships with the city or even community service. While it is not necessary for the Commission to solely create their own events, collaborating with other on-campus clubs and organizations can boost engagement within the Titan community.

2. How do you plan to utilize the Communications Commission to reach out to the CSUF student body and campus community and effectively communicate the messages of ASI? Please be descriptive and specific.

- I plan to utilize the Communications Commission to reach out to the CSUF student body through different social media features and engaging events. We have seen an increase in engagement levels on our Instagram, and I think it has a lot to do with the scheduled story posts like Trivia Tuesday, What's in Fullerton Wednesday, etc. I would like to continue communicating information from the university and ASI through these social media tools. Also, four new series were introduced by the commissions to create social media engagement; I believe these are all great ideas but can be revamped to be more effective and structured. For example, with "Under 5 with ASI," we can have a scheduled meeting with the officers or coordinators to discuss their upcoming events and then start the filming process. This way, we are not constantly reaching out at different times and waiting for a response. Moreover, I plan on having a meeting with the coordinators and other officers during the summer to effectively plan out which areas of campus life we want to focus on. Then, we can create an outline on how we can properly communicate this information through our social media, coordinator projects, flyers, events, and even minimalistic pamphlets that can be handed out on the Titan Walk. Another way to get more in-person engagement would be through the Community Chats. I believe having two per semester would be effective, one at the beginning of the semester to get student input and what they would like to see from ASI, then hosting another gathering towards the end of the semester to get feedback and reflect on ASI's actions throughout the semester and what type of events they would like to see from the different officers and their commissions. Another simple way to communicate information is through tabling at Titan Walk once a month and promoting ASI's offered resources and any upcoming events.

3. How do you plan to utilize the Community Engagement Commission to communicate the contribution of the CSUF student body to the local community? Please be descriptive and specific.

- Through the Community Engagement Commission, I plan on collaborating more with campus clubs and organizations. There are some amazing clubs that should be highlighted more through themed collaborative events with the local community and through the commissions within ASI. I also plan on creating a tentative schedule on different issues we can focus on each month and center our outreach and engagement on specific topics. This way, it is easier to find the resources already available on campus and focus on finding outside support. These beneficial community events will allow students to give back to their community but also learn about different issues and engage with like-minded individuals. Another great way to engage the Titan community on our social media is to highlight local businesses. We can search for businesses that are willing to give student specials or discounts and can promote them via social media.
4. How do you plan to brand the Associated Students to the CSUF student body and inform them about what the organization is and does on campus?
- To be more authentic and engaging. Oftentimes we are so caught up on our work, we tense up. I would really like to see some events, at least once a semester, where it is more laid back. Students can de-stress and relax but also connect with student leaders and voice their concerns. Obviously, we should be prepared to go into these events, but from a student perspective, it is more comfortable being in an environment that feels more intimate, relaxed, and equal. I would also like to see more ASI to support other departments on campus like DIRC and SLL, to name a few.

5. What goals and ideas do you have for the position and its areas of responsibility, and how would you improve upon what the position is doing now or has done in the past?
- I would really like to see more scheduled events from both the Communication and Community Engagement Commissions. Creating outlines the month prior will help us better prepare the content we want to release and events we want to create. We could also look ahead of time to determine any potential collaboration with the other commissions and/or the programming team. I believe this year’s focus was on settling back to campus after being online; next year will be about meeting as a team to eliminate what did not work and figure out how to enhance what did work to better communicate to the campus community.

6. The goals of the ASI President and Vice President centers on the Titan Experience, Empowerment and Academic Success. How does your vision of the position meet and add value to these goals? *
- I believe engagement between ASI leaders and the student body will create more trust between the two. It is important to note that a handful of our students face many barriers that do not allow them to get the Titan Experience we highlight so much. As someone who financially struggles and is a first-generation student, featuring these issues and creating resources, like the Food Pantry that helps students who face food insecurity, is pivotal. We can incorporate the values mentioned: Titan Experience, Empowerment, and Academic Success, through our social media story posts. For example, we can have Titan Tuesdays, where we highlight a student every week and showcase some of the departments, clubs, or organizations they are involved in and add any advice they have for others interested. We can also host Motivational Mondays where we focus on academic success and create posts centered around healthy habits, study tips, mindfulness, and so on. Lastly, I would like to emphasize that accessibility, sustainability, authenticity, inclusion, and equity are values I plan on incorporating through every thought process we have as a team.

Tell us about yourself (tell us about your background, your past experiences, and what makes you a good candidate for the position; include any information that you think appropriate and important for us to know):

Attending California State University, Fullerton (CSUF), there was no Middle Eastern North African (MENA) or SouthWest Asian North African (SWANA) representation. My goal of community building and engagement was a priority to me. In my first year, I became the founder and president of the Lebanese Social Club (LSC). From there, I was introduced to other MENA/SWANA organizations and was on the planning committee for the first two annual SWANA Weeks. This was the first-ever CSUF representation of Middle Eastern culture as well as first in any CSU, and it was all student-led. Creating an atmosphere of friendship, support, and allyship was crucial for forming a closely-knit community on campus. As SWANA, LSC, and other MENA/SWANA organizations on campus grew, there were many concerns about the lack of programming, representation, and resources for my community. Yes, there was a community being built, but the feeling of having a sense of belonging to the campus was not there. From there, a couple of SWANA folks and I started voicing our concerns not only to ASI but to the administration as well. We sat in numerous meetings, created powerpoints, sent out surveys, researched, and presented to President Virjee, administration, and ASI about the SWANA Titan Experience and the campus climate. Being sure our concerns were heard by having a SWANA demonstration, and reaching out to higher up folks in power, is leading us in the path of creating a resolution to have more resources for the MENA/SWANA community. I have learned to build a bridge between the students and administration by constantly having meetings with ASI folks, and checking in for updates with both sides. I am passionate about outreach and voicing concerns for students and I am ready to help any community feel united and connected to campus through campus events, programs, and outreach.

Tell us what you think the purpose of our ASI student government is and why you want to be a part of ASI leadership (tell us why you think ASI does what it does, what you hope to get out of the experience, and what you hope to learn):

The purpose of ASI student government is to voice the concerns and interests of students and implement change. Whether it involves concerns over parking or campus resources, it is ASI’s duty to confront these issues and implement ways to handle these situations to make every student feel united and connected to campus. Educating one another, learning from other campuses, filling gaps to create change in the institution and learning different ways to bring issues to light are key factors of what I hope to get out of this experience.

1. How would you describe the purpose and role of the Communications Commission and Community Engagement Commission?

The purpose of the Communications Commission is to use effective methods of public relations, marketing, and communications to create a bridge between ASI with the vast campus population and its climate. The Community Engagement Commission represents the loyalty ASI has towards CSUF students by being open to connecting and engaging in campus activities. Both commissions represent a two-way communication environment that creates a more democratic environment. This allows students to voice concerns and share their thoughts, ideas, and opinions, regardless of their campus affiliation. Both commissions rely on using practical communication skills and public relations strategies to build relationships and maintain the valuable reputation ASI holds.

2. How do you plan to utilize the Communications Commission to reach out to the CSUF student body and campus community and effectively communicate the messages of ASI? Please be descriptive and specific.

I believe engagement, resources, and convenience are three significant components that the CSUF student body and campus community should see from the Communications Commission. Being a large commuter campus, students want to feel connected to their university while still being given the resources they need at their convenience. If the commission implements these three critical points of engagement, resources, and convenience, while organizing outreach for the student body, ASI’s messages will effectively get across. In ASI’s 2018-2023 strategic plan, it incorporates Scholarly and creative activities that allow for the promotion of collaboration through academic and creative activities. For instance, if ASI wanted to organize an outreach event to have students understand the role of ASI, they should implement student interests to encourage engagement. This commission could reach out to the different inter-club councils to see the collective interests and implement them in an ASI outreach event. For example, the association for inter-club awareness (AICA) has many cultural organizations on its council. By applying different aspects of everyone's culture into one event, ASI can reach a large amount of the student population and incorporate “Diversity, equity, and inclusion,” which is also stated in their 2018-2023 strategic plan. Having smaller scale informative events with incentives such as free food and opportunity drawings by participating in learning more about ASI or participating in a survey allows for community engagement and a great way to market ASI and its vision. Other ways is to allow for community chats for different students to further understand what is happening on our campus, and raise awareness of new issues happening so we can help them. Reaching out to the Board of Directors to help promote their ICC or college events is another way to connect students to other college departments they might find an interest in, but it also fosters that college departments students by doing additional outreach to support the event.

3. How do you plan to utilize the Community Engagement Commission to communicate the contribution of the CSUF student body to the local community? Please be descriptive and specific.

To communicate the contribution of the CSUF student body to the local community, I think it is essential for the commission to emphasize the significance of students’ needs. In addition to hosting events such as community chats, I plan on highlighting changes that have been made to encourage students to advocate and showing students that their voice makes a difference. I also plan to post upcoming ASI events or events coming from ASI funded sources such as ICCs, if requested, weekly and have a schedule of ASI events for the month so students can book dates in advance. Posting on media outlets and having informational ASI booths with incentives are simple outreach methods that can be organized to inform students about the activities of the Community Engagement Commission prior to when they are held.

4. How do you plan to brand the Associated Students to the CSUF student body and inform them about what the organization is and does on campus?

I plan on branding Associated Students to the CSUF student body by emphasizing the fact that the government is run by students just like them. As ASI is student-led, branding the organization to show that students have a voice and call to action is essential to improve and maintain a respectable brand. This can encourage students to obtain positions during upcoming ASI elections as well. I plan on maintaining this brand by organizing consistent media and in-person outreach to the student body in a post covid world.

5. What goals and ideas do you have for the position and its areas of responsibility, and how would you improve upon what the position is doing now or has done in the past? *

One idea for improvement for this position is to ensure that all members in ASI are aware of the different aspects involving campus climate. It is essential to have campaigns and programming for students to feel welcomed and engaged on campus. This position should effectively communicate with departmental and student organizations to provide opportunities to engage with community resources and provide platforms that are beneficial not just for CSUF, but for the community as well. It is important that ASI acts as a platform to communicate and implement different strategies to ensure student engagement and not have ASI act as a separate entity away from the rest of the student population.

6. The goals of the ASI President and Vice President centers on the Titan Experience, Empowerment and Academic Success. How does your vision of the position meet and add value to these goals?

In order to have the 3 goals of Titan Experience, Empowerment, and Academic success it all starts with engaging students. By having students engaged through giveaways, opportunity drawings, ASI campus treasure hunts, or even promoting the different programming in other colleges, ICC, campus organizations and attending these events and vlogging about students' experiences makes an impact on students' experience. With such empowerment, student research shows that students who are more engaged and involved have higher academic returns. By highlighting all our campus has to offer through our social media and outreach between ASI and different departments, students will enjoy their titan experience as we create a safe space and a community of friendship.

My name is Maysem A. Awadaa and I am a second-year Political Science Major and Journalism Minor. My ultimate goal is to go into broadcast journalism and I hope to cover stories of advocacy, social justice, and current events. As somebody who has always challenged herself, I consistently find myself in positions where I can further my growth and skills when it comes to assisting others by any means. I grew up in San Francisco, California as a first-generation Palestinian Muslim. Both of my parents are immigrants; my mom immigrated from Palestine and my dad immigrated from Kuwait. My father is a small business owner and the president of his local merchant’s association, and my mother is a food and beverage director at a fine dining restaurant while also managing a household and children. Both of my parents taught me the values of selflessness, hard work, and standing up for myself and others while also consistently educating myself on events happening in our world. My parents raised me to be outspoken, personable, and diligent with my work. I am always on track with current events and I am consistently educating myself on various social justice issues that face my community as well as others. I always keep an open mind and am willing to listen to others and what they have to say about my work. I am diligent with time management and have found various ways to keep myself involved on campus while also strengthening my public speaking skills, my communication skills, and the manners in which I deal with difficult situations. I feel that for all the above reasons, I would be a great candidate to take on the role of Chief Inclusion and Diversity Officer.

ASI is a government made by the students, for the students. I believe that ASI is here to listen to students’ needs and to play a role in how our school functions when it comes to helping students that need it most. I aim to continue this mission and carry out my roles by keeping open eyes and ears to students’ needs when it comes to issues that concern Diversity, Social Justice, and keeping Equity prevalent within our campus. I hope to learn more and to educate about how I can work with our team assist the school in becoming a more inclusive environment for marginalized communities by continuing with providing resources, hosting educational events, and simply listening for what more I can do to further the inclusion efforts of our administration.

ASI leadership is a big commitment and we want to make sure you will have time for this involvement):

I am incredibly involved on campus and for that reason, I feel I have grown more and more with every day that I work with these organizations. I am currently the Events Coordinator for the Association for Intercultural Awareness (AICA), the Vice President of Students for Justice in Palestine (SJP), the Marketing Chair for the SouthWest Asian North African (SWANA) organization, and I have a radio show with Titan Radio. My position with AICA will come to an end at the end of this semester but I do plan on moving up in my leadership within ASI. I manage my time well and I am always on top of the work that I need to get done in a timely manner. I manage these extracurriculars while also taking five classes and maintaining my GPA of 3.06.

1. How would you describe the purpose and role of the Social Justice and Equity Commission?

   The Purpose of the Social Justice and Equity Commission is to provide a space for students to discuss Social Justice issues and various ways to assist marginalized communities on campus. It is a commission where those who feel unseen or unheard can contact others to hear and understand their words and concerns.

2. How do you plan to motivate, mobilize, and utilize the Social Justice and Equity Commission to (1) support social justice initiatives and (2) remove institutional barriers through educational campaigns and advocacy. Please be descriptive and specific.

   I aim to make sure that students are seen, heard, and understood. As somebody who has experienced discrimination on the grounds of ethnicity and religion, I understand the struggles that students have gone through and continue to go through. I will work to make sure that students know that they are supported by their administration and their student government. I aim to get more guest speakers who have pushed for change throughout their lifetimes in an effort to show support for marginalized communities on campus while also educating those who may not be as well versed in certain social justice issues. We live in a society where people are becoming more aware of institutional barriers as well as the struggles that communities face on a daily basis. Although our institution has been getting better at supporting social justice initiatives, there is still a long way to go in further listening to students’ concerns. Holding forums where people can voice their opinions and concerns is a way to hear what others have to say about what initiatives they would like to see within our school administration. Through these forums, we can note what the students would like to see from ASI while also gaining further insight into specific guest speaker events that students would like to have. I want to continue the series of guest speakers that we have had throughout this school year. These events have been proven to be successful and thought-provoking. If these events continue and become more diverse, students can be educated further on marginalized communities while the members of these communities can be seen and understood on campus as I would also like to involve them in the process of planning certain events.

3. How do you plan to motivate and mobilize the Social Justice and Equity Commission to engage and educate the CSUF student body about issues and policies that impact them? Please be descriptive and specific.

I aim to form a bridge between the student body and ASI to come to a point of understanding and diplomacy. I also want to make it understood to the commission that there are struggles from specific communities that I have not fully experienced, but that I do see and want to work to make a change towards. I want to encourage a student forum where I can make notes of how we can support marginalized communities on campus. Having representatives from various groups on campus that want and need our support will greatly enhance the student body’s point of view on various issues that face our institution. Outreach to student organizations is imperative in the aspect of getting students motivated and mobilized. Also speaking in classes and to professors that may cover topics of the histories of marginalized groups is a good way to reach out to students who are looking to start somewhere in the effort to make positive change.
4. How do you plan to motivate and mobilize the Social Justice Team and Commission to encourage and instill a sense of social justice and equity in CSUF students? Please be descriptive and specific.

I want to have a diverse group of individuals on this commission that represent various races, ethnicities, socio-economic backgrounds, sexualities, etc. I also aim to engage student organizations to voice their concerns about social justice issues on campus. I want the commission to work with me hands-on within ASI to create positive change on campus. I would like to keep the ASI President and Vice President updated on the social justice initiatives that are being practiced and to also gain their input on how we can further involve people within our institution. My goal is to grow the Social Justice Team and Commission and make it more present on campus to ensure the safety and soundness of our students. I also want to ensure that we look at underlying issues that may not be seen or heard as much such as mental health and socio-economic issues.

5. What goals and ideas do you have for the position and its areas of responsibility?

I am a firm believer in the aspect of teamwork. I have goals but I also want to be sure that they are being implemented with the help of the President and Vice President, our Executive Team, faculty, the Social Justice and Equity Commission, and our diverse student body.

There is a large list of accomplishments that I am aiming for, big and small. First, I want to implement for ASI representatives to have their pronouns on their nametags. Another goal is to diversify our faculty and involve students in the faculty hiring process, in this process, I want to look more into the faculty diversity training and make improvements or additions where they may be needed. In these efforts, I would like to work with the Chief Communications Officer to find ways to stay up-to-date on DIRC events as well as the events of various cultural and political organizations to encourage our students to diversify their worldview by promoting these events on our social media. In addition to these goals, I aim to work with the Chief Governmental Officer to encourage legislation to make Juneteenth a holiday while also educating students as to why it is so significant. Another goal that includes the Chief Governmental Officer is to see their ideas on bills that will encourage Inclusivity, Diversity, and Equity. Another goal of mine is to promote our school’s food pantry while also bringing in more diverse options for students to choose from such as including cultural foods that may connect students to their roots. I want to encourage looking more into our school’s investments and the ethics of certain products that are put on the shelves in our food pantry, our campus stores, and our food court.

These are all of the goals that I aim to achieve but I also want to highlight the campaign goals of Lydia Kelley and Christapor Mikaelian, our new ASI President and Vice President. Their three pillars when campaigning were the Titan Experience, Empowerment, and Academic Success. Through my position as Chief Inclusion and Diversity Officer, I aim to work towards these goals with Lydia and Chris as a team to understand the broad impact that we can make together. We can improve the Titan Experience at CSUF by working with student organizations to promote them and understand them, we can empower our student body by standing up for what is right and doing what is within our power to assist them in their social justice and equity goals, and we can encourage academic success by allowing students to be involved in a more diverse hiring process for professors so that a more relatable connection can be formed with educators.
