a. Discussion: Recognizing Indigenous Peoples Day

Rodriguez displayed the Resolution regarding Indigenous Peoples Day. Rodriguez stated that Intertribal Student Council organization mission statement was included to make it more relevant to California State University Fullerton (CSUF).

Rodriguez moved to review the resolution.

Rodriguez stated that if the resolution was adopted he would like to share it with other CSU's.

Snyder asked for clarification regarding Indigenous Peoples Day Holiday.

Rodriguez stated that it is not a federal holiday but it is a holiday that was created by a movement that encourages cities, councils and states to recognize it in lieu of Columbus Day. It is an encouragement to celebrate Indigenous Peoples Day.

Snyder asked what other CSU campuses are recognizing Indigenous Peoples Day? Rodriguez stated that California State University Long Beach and the city of Long Beach have moved to recognize and celebrate Indigenous Peoples Day.

Gelrud asked if recognizing Indigenous Peoples Day would ultimately replace Columbus Day?

Lawson stated that they would generally remove Columbus Day.

Rodriguez stated that California does not observe Columbus Day so it gives cities the opportunity to observe Indigenous Peoples Day.

Rodriguez yielded to Sheriff to share the history of the intertribal council.

Sheriff informed the committee about his experience of restarting the Intertribal Student Council. Sheriff provided a brief history regarding the council. Sheriff read the Intertribal Student Council mission statement.

Intertribal student council promotes the successful of the Indigenous student body and celebrates the diversity of the cultures that compose it.

Sheriff shared information regarding the local tribes. The original tribe in Fullerton was Gabilino. There are pictures and painting with descriptions regarding the tribe in the Titan Student Union.

Sheriff stated that there were 300-400 students enrolled as Native Americans.

Sheriff thanked the committee for allowing him to speak about the Indigenous Peoples Day. It will be impactful for the Native community.

Rodriguez asked for feedback from the committee in regards to adding or removing any context.

The committee discussed the order of the resolution.

Gelrud asked what are you specifically asking for from the University?

Sheriff answered to recognize Indigenous Peoples Day on the University's calendar and to ultimately remove Columbus Day.

Snyder asked if the goal was to include the Indigenous Peoples Day on the academic calendar as well?

Rodriguez stated that the goal is to be recognized on the academic calendar that is distributed by the University.

Sheppard asked if the goal would be to recognize or replace? Sheppard encouraged to be very specific in order for the University can take action.

The following whereas statement will be added to the resolution:

ASI encourages the University to replace Columbus Day with Indigenous Peoples Day on all academic calendar distributed by the University.

Snyder suggested to explain the reason why Columbus Day will be replaced with Indigenous Day

Sheppard suggested to keep the resolution positive.

Rodriguez stated that they would like for the city of Fullerton to recognize the Indigenous Peoples Day.

Rodriguez stated that the resolution would be on the Governance Agenda as an action item.
