NEW BUSINESS
a. Expenditure over $5,000 - PASA

FC 003 18/19 (Neal-m/Baker-s) A motion was made and seconded to approve the expenditure for $10,000 for Pilipinx-American Student Association’s Friendship Games to be held on October 20, 2018.

Jadelyn Upramai, PASA’s Friendship Games Co-Coordinator, made a presentation about the event.

Baker asked if they anticipated the same amount of CSUF students as last year.

Upramai stated that they hope to get more students this year. They are spreading word through the resource centers and students.

Baker asked where the participants come from.

Upramai stated that come from all over California, especially Nor Cal. There are a couple of groups that come from Arizona. In the past, they’ve had participants from Las Vegas and Hawaii.
Good asked about the $30,000 that PASA is paying for the event.

Upramai stated that the funds are not coming directly from PASA. They get sponsors, vendor fees and registration fees.

Good stated that $10,000 is a significant amount, PASA’s request is only 10% of AICA’s budget. Good wondered if PASA would be requesting more funds from AICA this year.

Neal asked if the request amount is similar to prior year requests.

Borjas stated that AICA’s budget is larger since the fund larger events. This request is typical.

Good asked if the $10,000 was coming from Contracts/Fees/Rentals.

Lawrence answered yes.

FC 003 18/19 4-0-0 The motion was passed.

b. Discussion: Dynamics of the Finance Committee

Abu-Elhaija stated that she wanted to follow-up on the information provided at the first meeting about the Finance Committee and the role of the members. Today’s meeting showed that the members are prepared to deliberate effectively on action items.

Abu-Elhaija stated that Borjas and Torres attend the meeting as ex-oficos. They are here to help and to contribute to the discussion, but the voting members have to make decisions.

Abu-Elhaija stated that there will be discussion items when an ICC, student group or student brings up an issue or concern.

Abu-Elhaija stated that her role as Chair is to facilitate the discussions.

Abu-Elhaija stated that discussion should be happening during the meetings, which are public and recorded in the minutes.

Abu-Elhaija encouraged the members to empower the weight of their seat and to utilize it.

Abu-Elhaija stated that anyone can bring up any concerns. She is still learning her role and will have to consult Lawrence for assistance. Questions can be directed to Abu-Elhaija. If she does not know the answer, she will ask Lawrence.

Borjas stated that he attends the meeting to provide the perspective from the executive team and to provide context and support to the members.
