REPORTS

a. Director of Financial Services

Lawrence reported the following:

1) Last week, Lawrence attended the Auxiliary Organizations Association (AOA) conference at their financial track meeting.

2) Congratulations to the members on their work deliberating the two action items.

Mitchell asked about the contingency funds.

Lawrence stated that contingency funds are for unexpected needs when all other possibilities have been exhausted.

b. Chair

Cook reported the following:

1) It is most likely that the October 31st Committee meeting will be cancelled. Cook will be attending a STEM meeting.

2) There is an update to the possible contingency request from Bridges International. They would like to attend a conference in Georgia, December 28, 2019 through January 1, 2020. They have five students who are interested in attending. The registration fee is $275. They could request $1.375. It is unknown if their plans have been confirmed, and no contingency request has been received.

3) Any amendments to proposals could be done during discussion of the action item.
4) The Business Interclub Council (BICC) has submitted a contingency request, but the requirement to meet with the Treasurer-Secretary did not happen before the deadline to post the agenda. The request will most likely be on next week’s agenda.

Kalra asked how much BICC requested.

Cook stated that the request is for $18,000.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

None.

NEW BUSINESS

a. Information: Banking Service Request for Proposal Process

Cook stated that Lawrence would present information about the banking service request for proposal (RFP) process.

Cook yielded to Lawrence.

Lawrence presented information about the banking service RFP process.

Hanna asked when the last time this process was done.

Lawrence stated that he was not sure.
