   Contreras spoke about the request.

   Hanna asked what the difference was between CRU and Bridges International.

   Contreras stated that CRU and Bridges International are part of the same umbrella organization. The students are members of CRU, but Bridges International is a separate branch.

   Kalra asked how attendees have been funded in years past.

   Contreras stated that they receive funding from support letters and sponsors.

   Kalra asked if they have asked for support letters for this conference.

   Contreras stated that they only have support letters for their retreat.

   Kalra asked if they have done any fundraisers.

   Contreras answered no.
Wright asked if the group was looking for funds to pay for registration.

Contreras stated that the requested amount would fund the registration and part of the airfare. They will seek sponsors letters for the rest of the needed amount. In the past, they have received sufficient funding from the support letters, but it depends on the amount the sponsor donates.

Baker asked if the request for sponsor letters had been sent to the sponsors.

Contreras stated that he did not know.

Hanna asked how they determine what students will attend the conference.

Contreras stated that they ask for volunteers. Five students have expressed an interest.

The only other CSU campus that has hosted the conference is Long Beach. Their main issue with hosting the conference was funding.

Wright asked how much has been raised.

Lambert answered that they have raised about $15,000. The University has pledged to give $75,000, but they have not received the funds yet.
