- ASI Advocacy Commission Meeting Spring 2020
- University events: Black History Month Celebration, Women's History Month Reception, Asian Pacific Islander Desi American Heritage Month Reception and What Brings Us together Luncheon

See report for additional information.

VII. Unfinished Business

VIII. New Business

a. Discussion: Policy Concerning ASI Programming Board
The committee will discuss establishing the Policy Concerning ASI Programming Board.

Linares yielded to Asha Nettles to review the Policy concerning Programming Board.

Nettles highlighted, training was included in the policy based on prior recommendation. Nettles stated the goal would be to have attendance from all student leaders.

Linares moved into questions.

Linares yielded to Aguirre.

Aguirre, was anything regarding training included on the policy?

Nettles clarified, it was not included. Requiring training is intended to avoid student leaders missing the trainings.

Linares yielded to Soria.

Soria, why is daily titan included?

Nettles clarified, for transparency purposes. Including daily titan ensures the policy is distributed properly.

Reveles, why twelve coordinators?

Nettles, it is one less than what ASI has. Twelve coordinators would be the max the budget would allow.

Nettles clarified, the spring concert would be under the responsibility of the two directors.
Reveles shared his favor towards the new programming board.
Aguirre, how will the office space be split?
Nettles, it has not been determined.
Aguirre, will the directors oversee all the events?
Nettles, yes.
Soria, how are the events divided among the two directors?
Nettles, the two directors would decide who would be available to work the event.

Discussion ensued.
No questions.

b. Discussion: A Resolution Approving Changes to ASI Bylaws
   The committee will discuss ASI bylaw changes.

   Linares invited Carol McDoniel, Director of Administration to elaborate on the changes made to the ASI Bylaws.

   McDoniel clarified the changes made to the bylaws were required by law.

   Attached is the documentation for additional information.

IX. Announcements/Member’s Privilege
Linares yielded to Reveles.

   Nettles informed the committee she would be collecting toys for Camp Titan. Nettles encouraged the committee to donate toys.

   Linares informed the committee about the College of Humanities and Social Sciences toy drive for families in need.

X. Adjournment
Linares adjourned the meeting at 3:19 pm
